Dear Mr. White,

The Clerk of Court's Office is in receipt of your correspondence filing your Certificate of Service, Notice of Appeal, Rule 59 Motion, and your request for the copy of the virtual hearing/transcript. The Certificate of Service, Notice of Appeal, and Rule 59 Motion have been clocked and filed in our office. You are receiving clocked copies with this return letter.

Please be advised that the Clerk's office does not prepare or provide transcripts of court proceedings. Requests for transcripts/recordings must be made through the SC Court Administration. You can submit that request to SC Court Administration at 1220 Senate Street Suite 200 Columbia, SC 29201. There is a form (SCCA Form 800) that will need to be submitted for that request. This form can be found on the internet at sccourts.org. There may be a fee required for this request.

Sincerely,

Marion County Clerk of Court

Common Pleas

Dear Mrs. Gray:

I am wishing to file my notice of intent to appeal and also my Rule 59(e) motion. Can you please send me a copy back clock stamped once filed? Also I want to pay for a copy of ~~my~~ the transcript from the 4-14-2026 hearing. Can you please notify me at your earliest convenience who I need to go through. I deeply apologize for causing you any trouble regarding my petition to the Supreme Court. I am only fighting to make it home to my 12 year old daughter who is growing up without a father or a mother as quickly as I can. I am fighting for a bigger purpose than myself. I pray that you understand my reasoning. I thank you also for your time and assistance. God bless you Queen.

Respectfully

Larry White
