Re: Richard Lewis v. Robert M. Errato
Appellate Case No. 2025-002050

Dear Counsel and Mr. Errato:

Both of you have filed notices of appeal in this matter, which we have designated as a cross-appeal. At this time, our records reflect Appellant/Respondent Robert Errato has filed an initial brief of appellant and designation of matter. Respondents/Appellants Richard Lewis and Walter Lewis filed a brief that we are construing as a respondent's initial brief and designation of matter. Mr. Errato filed an initial reply brief in response. It appears Respondents/Appellants to not wish to file an initial appellant's brief regarding their cross-appeal. Respondents/Appellants must file a motion within ten (10) days of the dates of this letter requesting permission to filing their initial appellant's brief and designation of matter out of time or their cross-appeal will be dismissed, and we will set a deadline for proof of service of the Record on Appeal which must be prepared by Mr. Errato.

Very truly yours,

Jasmine D. Smith, Deputy
CLERK
