As I've received no response to my 2 emails, I will assume you only need 1 bound copy of the ROA and 1 bound copy of Appellant's Final Brief as originals were filed months ago. If this is incorrect, please advise immediately. Thanks.

Subject: RE: Melanie R. Jones Metz v. Larry A. Windham, Jr. (Appellate Case 2025-000460)

Good morning. We just received the attached letter.

Quick question...completely understand the need for one (1) bound copy of the ROA and Appellant's Final Brief.

However, in the 2nd paragraph of the Court's letter, it states "appellant(s) must file an original record on appeal and final brief, in either electronic or unbound paper form, as well as one (1) bound paper copy of each."

The original ROA and Appellant's Final Brief were filed on December 12, 2025 and February 3, 2026.

Can you please clarify that the Court is simply requesting one (1) bound copy of the ROA and Appellant's Final Brief? Thanks!
