SC Court of Appeals

Jesse Edmond,

Appellant,

v.

Jana E. Shealy, Clerk of Administrative Law Court, and South Carolina Department of Corrections, Respondents.

NOTICE AND MOTION TO HOLD APPEAL IN ABEYANCE AND COMPEL DISCLOSURE OF COURT REPORTER IDENTITY, CONTACT INFORMATION AND FEE INFORMATION AND QUOTE OF PAYMENT DUE

Notice: Appellant hereby incorporates by reference the entirety, as re-stated verbatim herein, of the herewith contemporaneously filed Motion For Reconsideration of the June 1, 2026 Order of this Court denying Motion for Protective Order and for Allowance of Costs, Fees, and Expenses and the denial of the Motion To Stay Time for Ordering Transcript both filed April 6, 2026

On June 1, 2026, this Court issued an order denying Appellant's previously filed April 6, 2026 "Motion for Protective Order and for Allowance of Costs, Fees, and Expenses" related to the ordering of the transcript of the November 3, 2025 hearing. Additionally, the Court denied Appellant's "Motion to Stay Time for Ordering Transcript". 1

The Appellant received this Court's order on June 4, 2026. The Court in its order stated the following:

Further, Appellant shall provide proof of ordering the transcript within ten days of the date of this order or the appeal will be dismissed.

The Appellant hereby moves the Court for an order holding the appeal in abeyance and requiring the disclosure of the identity and contact information of the court reporter and fee/cost quote for the payment of the transcript of the November 3, 2025 hearing. The grounds for said motions shall include:

1. The order is signed by the Chief Justice for the Court. Thus, despite that Appellant has been granted leave to appeal in forma pauperis and acknowledges Appellant's indigency, the Court allots Appellant a mere six (6) days in which to comply with the Court's order. This is plainly a de facto denial of justice and of Equal Access To Justice within the meaning of In Re Commission on Equal Access To Justice Commission, 417 S.C. 118 (Chief Justice, South Carolina Supreme Court, August 16, 2016).
2. Moreover, despite the Appellant's filings with this Court clearly demonstrating a marked determination of court officials to hinder and otherwise prevent the Appellant from even obtaining the court reporter's identity and contact information, this Court demands strict compliance with its order, while the Richland County Clerk of Court, and the South Carolina Court Administration fails to require Appellant be provided said information. See Appellant's March 27, 2026 letter addressed to Jenny Abbot Kitchings, Clerk, South Carolina Court of Appeals, which details Appellant's efforts to obtain the court reporter information, all such efforts failing, including the filing of a complaint with the South Carolina Court Administration. The Appellant thus, due to no fault of his own, is unable to comply with this Court's order, nor with the appellate court rules regarding the ordering of the transcript, which is required to proceed with the appeal.
1. This order further denies Appellant's motion to require the SDC to comply with its own legal photocopies policy. Thus, Appellant cannot provide nor comply with this court's rules regarding copies of pleadings and exhibits.

3. Also attached is Appellant's February 3, 2026 letter and Complaint against Richland County Clerk of Court (for refusal to provide court reporter information) to the South Carolina Court Administration, requesting the identity and contact information for the court reporter in question. To date, no such information has been provided to the Appellant.
4. Further attached hereto, is a Complaint, dated April 1, 2026, to the South Carolina State Ethics Commission, which includes allegations regarding the Richland County Clerk of Court's refusal to provide the requested information regarding the identity and contact information of the court reporter in question. That Complaint also includes allegations regarding the State Court Administrator's failure to require the disclosure or actual provision of said information to the Appellant. That complaint is still pending before the Commission.
5. Enclosed is the demanded proof of ordering required of the indigent Appellant, addressed to unknown court reporter, for the November 3, 2025 transcript of unknown number of pages, and length, and unknown fee or cost. Appellant cannot pay a court reporter who remains anonymous, and whose fees are unknown. The Appellant has complied with this Court's strict and draconian order denying justice. 2
6. Therefore, the Appellant respectfully requests an order holding this appellate proceeding in abeyance in order to allow the Appellant to seek payment arrangements and pending this Court's disposition of the motion to compel disclosure of the court reporter, and of the unknown amount or cost for the transcript in question
7. Appellant, so moves, in consideration of this motion, and the contemporaneously filed herewith motions, which include :
 - a. Motion for Reconsideration En Banc ; and
 - b. Motion To Compel Disclosure of Court Reporter Identity and Contact Information and Fee Information and Quote of Payment Due; and

WHEREFORE, having submitted the foregoing matters, Appellant

2. The Richland County Clerk of Court's February 2, 2026 guidance to the incarcerated Appellant to go online for "Locating A Court' Reporter" is illogical, as inmates are forbidden internet access, and cannot "hover" or "click" or "select" WebEx as the court reporter. Moreover, no number of pages information is provided.

moves for an order holding the appeal in abeyance for the foregoing reasons.

Respectfully Submitted,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "Jesse Edmond", is written over a horizontal line.

Re: COMPLETED TRANSCRIPT ORDER FORM ENCLOSED

Dear WebEx/Unknown Court Reporter:

Please find enclosed Transcript Order Form SCCA 800 (03.2023), for the November 3, 2025 hearing in Richland County Court of Common Pleas, before Daniel Coble, a judge.

The Transcript Order form does not specify a mailing address for the unknown court report, nor does it provide a mailing address for WebEx who acted as court reporter. So I'm operating with ZERO information as to the court reporter's contact information, and relevant information pertaining to the number of pages, and fees due.

Moreover, the South Carolina Department of Corrections forbids the provision of copies of any inmate legal documents other than a post-conviction relief related document. Therefore, I am actively prevented from contemporaneously serving all parties, the clerk of the appellate court, and all other parties. The appellate courts are aware of this situation, and have seen fit to not intervene or cure this systemic failure of justice and equal access to justice.

Accordingly, I request a three (3) copies of the enclosed form be returned to me.

Please forward this communication to WebEx who has no mailing address, or the unknown court reporter.

Kind Regards,

Jesse Edmond

Re: Request for TRANSCRIPT REQUEST FORM (SCCA Form 800)

Dear SCCA:

I would respectfully request you provide me with one (1) Transcript Request Form (SCCA Form 800).

On this date, I received writing communication from the Richland County Clerk of Court. The Richland County Clerk of Court, Jeanette W. McBride, has:

1. Refused to provide requested Court Reporter identity, and contact information, and;
2. Sent online transcript ordering information, (NOT ACCESSIBLE TO PRISONERS), failed to include the referenced form in responding to recent communications in writing.
3. While sending information that referenced WebEx Hearings, as occurred in my case, the Richland County Clerk of Court, presumes incomprehensibly and unreasonably, that a prisoner with no access to the internet, can go online and "select WebEx as the court reporter", while Rule 207 and 607, SCACR, provide that "the transcribed paper copy is the official record of court proceedings."

Therefore, I request the appropriate information, including:

- [*] Transcript Order Form (SCCA Form 800); and
- [*] Writing documents related to obtaining transcripts of WebEx Hearing, and specific information as to court reporter contact information. No writing documents is available to prisoners on these matters.
- [*] The identity and contact information of the Court Reporter, responsible for transcribing the "paper copy" of the "official record of court proceedings" on November 3, 2025, before Judge Daniel Coble, via WebEx in Richland County Court of Common Pleas, in Jesse Edmond v. Jana E. Shealy, Clerk, Administrative Law Court, Case No.: 2025-CP-40-03564

TO THE SOUTH CAROLINA STATE ETHICS COMMISSION:

Re: Formal Complaint Against Officials of the South Carolina
Court Administration

COMES NOW, Jesse Edmond (the "Complainant"), and files this Verified Complaint with the South Carolina State Ethics Commission against officials of the South Court Administration, and the Clerks of Court for the Administrative Law Court (Jana E. Shealy), and for Richland County (Jeanette W. McBride) (the "Respondent(s)"), including but not limited to the State Court Administrator Karama B. Herrington and/or other responsible personnel , for violating the South Carolina State Ethics Reform Act.

I.

JURISDICTION

Pursuant to S. C. Code Ann., § 8-13-320(9), the State Ethics Commission has the duty and power to initiate or receive complaints ... and make investigations ... of alleged violations of this chapter by a public official, public member, or public employee." The South Carolina Court Administration is a state agency whose employees are "public employees" subject to the Ethics Reform Act. See Footnote 1.

1. Ethics Commission Case No. # C 2023-087, Complaint Against Becky Bloom Hill, a clerk of court , sworn and dated June 26, 2023, which was heard by this Commission on December 19, 2024 at 9:00 AM.

Name: Jeanette W. McBride
Position: Clerk of Court
Agency: Richland County Court of Common Pleas
P. O. Box 2766
Columbia, SC 29202-2766

IV.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

1. On or about December 5, 2025, Complainant submitted a Complaint to the South Carolina Court Administration detailing specific misconduct by Jana E. Shealy, Clerk, Administrative Law Court.
Further, on or about February 3, 2026, Complainant submitted a Complaint to the South Carolina Court Administration detailing specific misconduct by Jeanette W. McBride, Clerk, Richland County Court of Common Pleas.
2. The South Carolina Court Administration has a statutory duty to respond to and process such complaints, as established by S. C. Code Ann. § 14-27-10, which tasks the Judicial Council (Supported by the Court Administration) with making a "continuous study and survey of the administration of justice in this State."
3. Despite the passage of more than five (5) months, the South Carolina Court Administration has failed to provide any acknowledgment, status update, or determination regarding Complainant's complaints against the two Respondent Clerks of Court.
4. Complaint has made reasonable efforts to follow up, including written communications or letters, all of which have been ignored, or deflected.
5. The Respondents' inaction and the misconduct alleged in the submitted complaints against these clerks of court, constitutes a failure to perform their mandatory duties and violates the public trust.

V.

ALLEGED VIOLATIONS

COUNT ONE: Failure to Perform A Mandatory Duty Imposed By Law

- (a) Respondent Karama B. Herrington, Respondent Jana E. Shealy, and Respondent Jeannette W. McBride by misconduct alleged in the submitted complaints, and by Respondent Herrington's failing to respond to or process Complainant's complaints against these two clerks of court violated S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-705(A)(3) and § 8-13-705(B)(3), which prohibits a public official or employee from using their office to "induce a public official, public member, or public employee to perform or fail to perform an act in violation of the public official's public member's, or public employee's official responsibilities."

Further, it violations § 8-13-705(B)(3), which provides that a public official may not directly or indirectly, knowingly ask, demand, exact, solicit, seek, accept, assign, receive, or agree to receive anything of value for himself or another person in return for being: (3) induced to perform or fail to perform an act in violation of his official duties. This also applies the the misconduct alleged in the previously submitted original complaints submitted by Complainant against:

- (b) Respondent Jana E. Shealy
- (c) Respondent Jeanette W. McBride

COUNT TWO: Abuse of Office and Neglect of Duty

Respondents' sustained inaction, and misconduct in the original complaints against these clerks of court constitutes an abuse of their positions and neglect of duty, S.C. Code Ann. §-1-60, which provides that "Any clerk of the court of common pleas and general sessions ... who shall wilfully fail or neglect to discharge all the duties and perform all the services which are required of him by law shall, be liable to be indicted as for a misdemeanor..."

These sustained inactions and misconducts in office, including failure to comply with Rule 55(a), South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, requiring the entry of default on the calendar, constitute violations of the Ethics Reform Act's core principles, as failure to act is a form of misconduct that undermines government accountability and violate's Complainant's right of access to the courts, and to judicial review.

Lastly, It violates their statutory oaths and their statutory bonds.

Each refused to give copy of bond. S.C. Code Ann. § 8-3-210

COUNT THREE Violation of Public Trust

By ignoring a citizen's good faith complaints, motions filed for entry of default (and failing to make entry of default), refusing to accept timely filed notices of appeal, and failing to respond to request for court reporter identification and contact information, and failure to provide transcript order form, Respondent(s) have violated the public trust inherent in their offices, contrary to the purpose of the Ethics Reform Act as stated in S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-100.

They have violated their statutory oaths, and statutory bonds.

VII

REQUEST FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Complainant respectfully requests that the State Ethics Commission:

- A. Accept jurisdiction of this Complaint.;
- B. Conduct a full investigation into the Respondent's alleged inaction and misconduct as alleged in the original complaints;
- C. If probable cause is found, order a public hearing before a three-member Commission Panel;
- D. Order the Respondent Karama B. Herrington, to transmit to this Commission the entire complaint record of Complaint's efforts to file a complaint, and all documentation related thereto;

- E. Order the Respondent Jana E. Shealy, to transmit to this Commission, the entire record of Complaint's efforts to file an administrative appeal via a Notice of Appeal, and all documentation related thereto;
- F. Order the Respondent Jeanette W. McBride to transmit this Commission the entire pleadings and motions record of Complainant's efforts to attain entry of default upon the calendar pursuant to Rule 55(a), South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure in the case of Jesse Edmond v. Jana E. Shealy, and the South Carolina Department of Corrections, Case no. # 2025-CP-40-03564, as well as written correspondence requesting court report identification and contact information, attempts to file Notice of Appeal which were rejected or returned, and all documentation related thereto;
- G. Award such other relief as the Commission deems just and proper, including but not limited to formal charges for neglect of duty, and recommendation for criminal prosecution, pursuant to S.C. Code § 8-1-60.

VII.

VERIFICATION

I Jesse Edmond, swear or affirm under penalty of perjury that the facts stated in this Ethics Complaint are true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information and belief. I understand that false statements by subject me to criminal penalties under S. C. law.
