Dear ms. Kitchins,

SC Court of Appeals

My name is Mrs. Virginia J. Blackmon and I am the wife of Mr. Andrew L. Blackmon. I am writing to you on the behalf of Mr. Andrew Blackmon to let you know about his multiple mental illness that he suffers from. He has not been on his meds for 3-4 yrs. and the staff at the Forensic Evaluation Service Paralegal S.C. Dept. of mental health did not do a complete necessary full eval on my husband. Such as his mother + younger brother mental illnesses. We do have credible evidence that suggest wrong doing on the part of the evaluators at the Forensic Evaluation Service Paralegal S.C. Dept. of mental health. I am also Mr. Blackmons Power of Attorney. We would like to have your help with this case on the behalf of my husband Mr. Andrew Blackmon. The case number for husbands appeal is as follows: Case # 2013-002440. Please look into this appeal for our sake and case. Mr. Blackmon was not asked about his family history during his eval. This is extremely important to the both of us and we can please help us with my husbands appeal. We would really appreciate it very much in this matter Ms. Kitchens. Here's my number if you have any questions 803-410-7599.

Yours Truly
Mr. Andrew Blackmon
Mrs. Virginia Blackmon
