Indictment No. 2026GS46-02388

IN THE COURT OF APPEALS
State of South Carolina

-VS-

Shannon Renae Hodge,

Defendant.

RECEIVED

JUN 15 2026

RULE 203(B) EXPLANATION

SC Court of Appeals

Pursuant to Rule 203(B)(iv), the issue to be raised on appeal is whether the trial court erred in limiting the Defendant's time served credit to the time spent in pre-trial detention in York County SC, beginning May 19th, 2026. Ms. Hodge had been in pre-trial detention in three different counties in North Carolina, beginning in June of 2025. These counties were Mecklenburg, Rowan, and Cabarrus, and she served time in the North Carolina Department of Corrections. She was served with a SC Governor's Warrant on 8-19-25. I asked for the Judge to give her the 288 days, dating back to 8-19-25. The solicitor told the Judge that he believed she was only entitled to 15 days credit, dating back to her arrival in the York County Jail on May 19th, 2026. Judge Cole sentenced her to a three year prison sentence, but declined to put how much time served credit she would receive. I asked the Judge a second time to please put down 288 days, because it seemed implausible that SCDC would notice that the Governor's warrant was served on her while still in NC.

Respectfully submitted,
