The State,

Respondent.

v.

Faraji Taajwar Glenn,

Appellant.

Rule 203 Explanation of Issue

As required by Rule 203(d)(1)(B)(iv), SCACR, undersigned counsel submits the following explanation of the issue that may be raised on appeal. Mr. Glenn contends the circuit court erred in denying him credit for time served prior to sentencing pursuant to Section 24-13-40 of the South Carolina Code, which provides that "credit for time served prior to trial and sentencing shall not be given: . . . when the prisoner commits a subsequent crime while out on bond."

Mr. Glenn argues that the statute violates the Double Jeopardy and Due Process Clauses of both the United States and South Carolina Constitutions. By depriving Mr. Glenn of credit for pretrial detention toward his sentence, the statute constitutes multiple punishments for the same offense. Furthermore, even if the statutory provision is constitutionally valid, statutory construction would dictate that credit for pretrial detention would be denied on the first offense only, and would be given for the subsequent offenses.
