Re: Request for Review/Reconsideration of Eviction Appeal — Good Faith Dispute, Payments, and Supporting Documentation

To the Honorable Judge:

I respectfully ask the Court to review and reconsider my eviction appeal and the circumstances surrounding my case. I am asking for the opportunity to have all evidence reviewed because I believe there are important facts, payments, and disputes that need to be considered.

I did not ignore my responsibilities or refuse to pay. After the magistrate court decision, I acted quickly by filing my appeal and making a required payment toward the appeal process. My actions show that I was making a good-faith effort to comply with the Court while also trying to resolve concerns regarding the balance being claimed.

My concerns include:

- Disputed rent balances and charges that I believe require a full accounting review.
- Possible fees or charges that may not have been properly explained or authorized.
- The need to verify that all rental assistance payments, including assistance through Wateree Action, were properly credited.
- Issues involving the property, including concerns I reported regarding water/utility matters.
- The financial hardship affecting my household while I pursued available assistance.

My family has experienced significant hardship, including disability-related circumstances, but I continued seeking solutions through proper channels. I contacted assistance programs, maintained documentation, and attempted to address the matter rather than avoid it.

I respectfully request that the Court consider:

1. Reviewing the complete payment history and ledger;
2. Confirming all assistance payments and credits were applied correctly;
3. Reviewing disputed charges and fees;
4. Allowing my appeal and evidence to be heard on the merits.

I understand the importance of following Court procedures, and any missed requirement was not an attempt to delay or disregard the Court. I have been acting in good faith to protect my family's housing while resolving the disputed issues.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Respectfully,

Cornelius McClary^[1]_{SEP}
