Re: Jerome Curry v. State
Appellate Case No. 2026-001383

Dear Mr. Curry,

This Court has received a notice of appeal filed by your counsel and the case has been assigned the appellate case number that appears above. Please use this number on all future correspondence relating to this matter.

Within twenty days of the date of this letter, you will need to provide this Court with the following:

Since the order of the circuit court determined that this action is barred as being successive and/or as being untimely under the statute of limitations, your counsel filed an explanation under Rule 243(c), SCACR. You may also file a pro se explanation, setting forth why the PCR court's determination was improper. This explanation must contain sufficient facts, argument and citation to legal authority to show that there is an arguable basis for asserting that the determination by the lower court was improper. The failure to make a sufficient showing may result in the dismissal of this matter.

All parties to this matter are advised that all filings must comply with the requirements of Rule 267 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR). The SCACR are available online at www.sccourts.org/courtreg. Additionally, any filings submitted by counsel admitted in South Carolina must include counsel's bar number.

The attention of the parties is directed to the order relating to the inclusion of personal data identifiers and other sensitive information in documents filed with the Supreme Court of South Carolina and the South Carolina Court of Appeals. The order can be found at www.sccourts.org/courtOrders/displayOrder.cfm?orderNo=2014-04-15-02.

Please note that the responsibility for ensuring that information is redacted or sealed as required by this order rests with counsel and the parties. This office will not review filings for redaction or to determine if materials should be sealed.

Sincerely,
