SC Court of Appeals

Eric Fuller, Landlord,
Plaintiff,
v.
Camille Henderson / Prosperity, Tenant(s),
Defendant(s).
Civil Case No. 2026CV2303590

MOTION TO REDUCE OR WAIVE APPEAL BOND

COMES NOW the Defendant, by and through the undersigned, and respectfully moves this Honorable Court for an Order reducing, and/or waiving, the appeal bond required to stay execution in this ejectment matter. In support of this Motion, Defendant states as follows:
This matter involves an appeal from the Magistrates Court in an ejectment action.
The Court has set an appeal bond in the amount of $5,700.

Defendant respectfully requests that the Court reduce the bond to an amount reasonably within Defendant’s ability to pay, or in the alternative waive the bond requirement based on Defendant’s financial hardship and inability to post the current amount.
Defendant is attempting in good faith to pursue the appeal and preserve the right to review without suffering immediate execution.
Requiring the current bond amount would effectively deny Defendant the ability to maintain the appeal and remain in possession during the appellate process.

Defendant requests an expedited hearing due to the time-sensitive nature of an eviction appeal.
WHEREFORE, Defendant respectfully requests that this Court enter an Order reducing the appeal bond to an amount the Defendant can reasonably post, or waiving the bond requirement, and granting such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.
Respectfully submitted,
