RE: The Need for an Extension

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

I received an Order dated November 25, 2013 from someone from the Court. I could not understand his name. Anyway, he was giving me 30 days to make an amendment to my Initial Brief. Unfortunately, it is more involved than I thought it would be and I will not be ready by Friday, December 27, 2013. The young lady there who is working with my case said that I had until Friday to turn in my amendment to my Initial Brief. I need to get an extension for 30 more days. If I cannot get the extension for 30 days, then 25 days, or 15 days. I need time to finish it because I was going about it the wrong way. I am working hard on amending my Initial Brief because I want to comply with the Appellate Court rules and regulations.

I received the letter right during the Thanksgiving Holidays and now it is the Christmas Holidays. I have to use the USC Law library or the Supreme Court Library. USC Library is closed for the Christmas Holidays. It is also the school break and the library is closed. It has limited hours for December 27 and December 30, 2013.

USC Library will not be back on regular schedule until Tuesday, January 7, 2014. In addition to amending my Initial Brief, I have to correct my Designation of Matter. I am having some difficulty quoting the Designation of Matter in my brief.

Will you please ask the Court if I could have an extension? I am not going to be ready by Friday, although I am trying hard to be ready. I don't have access to any legal material since the Library is closed. I am coming by the office in the morning and submit my $25.00. I am hoping that the Court will give me some more time to comply with the Court rules and regulations and procedures. There is a great need for me to correct my initial Brief and Designation of Matter. It is very hard to get anything done when the Legal Libraries are closed. I don't have access to any more Libraries. In addition, it is very hard to get any thing done during the Holidays because of the schools etc., being closed. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Gertrude Shiver
