

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA
COMMON PLEAS

} IN THE COURT OF

COUNTY OF DORCHESTER }

Joseph H. Jennings and Charlise B. Jennings,

Case No. : 2013-CP-18-1548

Plaintiff(s),

NOTICE OF APPEAL

v.

Household Finance Corporation, II,

Defendant(s).

RECEIVED
DEC 20 2013
SC COURT OF APPEALS

70741

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that I Joseph H. Jennings and my wife

Charlise B. Jennings the above-named Plaintiff(s), appeals the Judgment in this

Civil Case of Foreclosure and Sale imposed by the Honorable Kristi Harrington on November 14, 2013, wherein I the Plaintiff(s), Joseph H. Jennings and my wife Charlise B. Jennings requested a Common Law Hearing Trial by Jury and was Denied our Motion for Common Law Hearing Trail By Jury and case was ended.

I the Plaintiff(s), Joseph H. Jennings and my wife Charlise B. Jennings, at this time request an Appeal on the grounds of:

Our 7th Amendment of the United States Constitution which clearly states that any controversial exceeding twenty ($20.00) must be adjudicated by a jury trial.

We are requesting that the Court of Appeals overturn the foreclosure decree because at our hearing on November 14, 2013, the Judge denied us our Motion for Common Law Hearing Trial by Jury and ended the case. We requested a Common
Law Hearing and Trila by Jury because we feell that this is the only way that we Will be able to obtain any justice based upon the evidene we have against the Alleged loan company (Household Finance Corporation, II), without contending with the attorney representing the Defendant(s), Household Finance Corporation, II. Also, we feel that in the Common Law Hearing Trial by Jury we can prove that We did serve the appropriate parties involved.

Furthermore, this administrative Order impedes one or more of our Protective rights by the United States Constitution. Under the United States Constitution, we am entitled to request a Common Law Hearing as well as a trial by jury as it is our legal rights under the United States Constitution and we fell that our legal rights have been unjustly denied.
This administrative Order is void because it has impeded our constitutional rights of the 7th Amendment of the United States Constitution.

Respectfully submitted,

Joseph H. Jennings
