Re: The State v. Patrick T. Williams
Appellate Case No. 2026-001403

Dear Mr. Williams:

The Court has received your notice of appeal on June 22, 2026. Because you are represented by counsel, we are returning your documents. See Miller v. State, 388 S.C. 347, 347, 697 S.E.2d 527, 527 (2010) ("Since there is no right to 'hybrid representation' that is partially pro se and partially by counsel, substantive documents, with the exception of motions to relieve counsel, filed pro se by a person represented by counsel are not to be accepted unless submitted by counsel."). This Court will take no further action on your correspondence.

Our records indicate your attorney filed a notice of appeal. We have attached a copy of the notice of appeal for your records.

Very truly yours,

CLERK
