IN THE SOUTH CAROLINA COURT OF APPEALS

Appellate Case No. 2026-000958

Josetta Singleton, Jayla Singleton, and Tinarris Williams,
Appellants,

v.

AMH Development, LLC/AH4R Management SC, LLC, Respondent.

INITIAL APPELLANT'S BRIEF

STATEMENT OF THE ISSUES PRESENTED

1. Whether the Circuit Court erred in calculating and imposing the appeal bond based upon inaccurate or disputed account balances.

2. Whether the Circuit Court erred by relying upon rental ledgers that included fees and charges subsequently ordered removed by the court.

3. Whether Respondent failed to comply with the June 4, 2026 Bond Order by continuing to assess or maintain charges that were ordered removed.

4. Whether Appellants were denied due process where the bond amount was based upon disputed accounting records and unresolved compliance issues.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

This appeal arises from a landlord-tenant dispute involving AMH Development, LLC/AH4R Management SC, LLC. During the proceedings, Appellants challenged the accuracy of Respondent's accounting records and rental ledger.

At a bond hearing, the court removed certain late fees and attorney fees from the balance. Nevertheless, Appellants continued to dispute the accounting records relied upon by Respondent.

On June 4, 2026, the Circuit Court entered a Bond Order requiring Appellants to post bond. Appellants thereafter filed an Emergency Motion to Determine Compliance, asserting that Respondent had not complied with the court's directives regarding the removal of charges and proper accounting of the balance.

On June 18, 2026, Appellants appealed the June 4, 2026 Bond Order to the South Carolina Court of Appeals. On June 22, 2026, the Circuit Court entered an Order staying Appellants' Emergency Motion to Determine Compliance pending the outcome of the appeal.

ARGUMENT

I. THE BOND ORDER WAS BASED UPON DISPUTED ACCOUNTING RECORDS.

The record demonstrates a continuing dispute concerning the accuracy of Respondent's rental ledger and account balance. Appellants submitted evidence of payments and challenged charges appearing on Respondent's records. Because the bond amount was derived from disputed figures, appellate review is warranted.

II. RESPONDENT'S LEDGER INCLUDED CHARGES THAT WERE ORDERED REMOVED.

The court removed certain late fees and attorney fees. Appellants contend that Respondent continued to maintain or rely upon charges inconsistent with the court's directives. Any bond calculation based upon those charges was therefore unreliable.

III. THE COMPLIANCE ISSUES REMAIN UNRESOLVED.

After the June 4, 2026 Bond Order, Appellants filed an Emergency Motion to Determine Compliance. The Circuit Court later stayed the motion pending appeal rather than resolving the compliance dispute. Consequently, the issues surrounding the proper balance and Respondent's compliance remain unresolved.

IV. APPELLANTS WERE PREJUDICED BY RELIANCE ON INACCURATE OR INCOMPLETE ACCOUNTING INFORMATION.

Where a bond obligation is imposed based upon disputed records, due process concerns arise. Appellants respectfully submit that appellate review is necessary to ensure that any bond requirements are based upon accurate and properly verified information.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Appellants respectfully request that the Court of Appeals review the June 4, 2026 Bond Order, grant appropriate relief, and remand for further proceedings as necessary.

Respectfully submitted,

EMERGENCY MOTION TO STAY WRIT OF EJECTMENT PENDING APPEAL TO THE SOUTH CAROLINA COURT OF APPEALS

COMES NOW the Appellant, Josetta Singleton, Tinarris Williams and Jayla Singleton, pro se, and respectfully moves this Honorable Court for an immediate stay of any Writ of Ejectment and all eviction enforcement proceedings pending resolution of the currently pending appeal before the South Carolina Court of Appeals.

This Motion is necessary to preserve the status quo, protect this Court's jurisdiction, and prevent irreparable harm.

I. PROCEDURAL STATUS

1. A judgment of possession was entered against Appellant in Magistrate Court;
2. Appellant timely appealed and has an active appeal pending before the South Carolina Court of Appeals;
3. Appellant has filed (or is filing) an Emergency Motion to Stay with the Court of Appeals;
4. Despite the pending appeal, eviction enforcement is imminent.

II. BASIS FOR EMERGENCY STAY

A. Irreparable Harm

Execution of a Writ of Ejectment will result in immediate loss of housing, displacement, and disruption of Appellant's life. Such harm is irreparable and cannot be remedied by monetary damages.

B. Preservation of Appellate Jurisdiction

If eviction proceeds, the appeal before the Court of Appeals will be rendered moot because Appellant will lose possession before appellate review is completed.

C. Substantial Issues on Appeal

The appeal raises serious and substantial issues, including:

- Failure of the trial court to consider material evidence;
- Due process violations;
- Disputed rent and fee calculations;
- Landlord failure to address habitability concerns, including repair issues and alleged mold/microbial conditions.

D. Balance of Equities

The harm to Appellant is severe and immediate, while Respondent's interests are financial and can be protected through monetary remedies.

III. LEGAL AUTHORITY

This Court retains authority to stay enforcement of its judgment to preserve the status quo pending appellate review and to prevent mootness of an active appeal before a higher court.

IV. REQUEST FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Appellant respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Immediately stay execution of any Writ of Ejectment;
2. Stay all eviction enforcement proceedings;
3. Maintain the status quo pending resolution of the appeal before the South Carolina Court of Appeals;
4. Grant such other relief as the Court deems just and proper;
5. Alternatively, set this matter for an emergency hearing on an expedited basis.

This matter came before the Court on the Appeal from the judgment of the Magistrate Court of Berkeley County granting a writ of eviction filed by Appellants Josetta Singleton, Jayla Singleton, and Tinarris Williams, pro se, (collectively "Appellants"). A hearing was conducted virtually via WebEx on March 3, 2026. Present at the hearing were the Appellants, pro se. The Court, having reviewed the Appeal, the Magistrate's Return, and the arguments of Appellants, hereby AFFIRMS the judgment of the Magistrate Court for the following reasons:

FINDINGS OF FACT

On or about December 31, 2025, Appellees, through counsel, filed an Application for Ejectment against Josetta Singleton, Jayla Singleton, and Tinarris Williams in the Magistrate Court of Berkeley County, case number 2025CV0810606094, for failing to pay rent when due under the terms of the written lease agreement for the property located at 129 Anthurium Drive, Summerville, SC 29486. Appellants were timely served with the Application for Ejectment and Rule to Vacate or Show Cause signed by the Honorable William D. Wilson, Jr.

Appellants timely requested a Show Cause Hearing. The Show Cause Hearing was held on January 26, 2026, before the Honorable William D. Wilson, Jr. Josetta Singleton and Tinarris Williams appeared at the Show Cause Haring, pro se. Appellees appeared at the Show Cause Hearing represented by counsel, Mark B. Goddard. At the time of the Show Cause Hearing Appellants were in arrears in the amount of $5,807.56 along with $500 in attorney's fees, with a monthly rent of $2,437.00. The written lease agreement contained statutory language regarding notice for late payment of rent. Appellees provided Appellants with written notice of the delinquency on or about December 8, 2025.

At the Show Cause Hearing, the Magistrate ruled that tenants failed to show cause why they should not be ejected pursuant to the Rule to Vacate or Show Cause. The Magistrate determined that Appellants were in breach of their written lease agreement and were not timely in the payment of their rent as required. Therefore, the Magistrate Court issued a Warrant of Ejectment that was properly served on and signed by the Appellants. The Warrant of Ejectment required the Appellants to peacefully and voluntarily vacate the premises located at 129 Anthurium Drive, Summerville, Berkeley County, South Carolina 29486, on or before January 31, 2026. Appellants filed the instant appeal on January 28, 2026.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 18-7-170, a Magistrate Court's judgment may be reversed where the Court finds an error of law or fact.

Pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 27-40-710(B):

> [i]f rent is unpaid when due and the tenant fails to pay rent within five days from the date due or the tenant is in violation of Section 27-40-540, the landlord may terminate the rental agreement provided the landlord has given the tenant written notice of nonpayment and his intention to terminate the rental agreement if the rent is not paid within that period. The landlord's obligation to provide notice under this section is satisfied for any lease term after the landlord has given one such notice to the tenant or if the notice is contained in conspicuous language in a written rental agreement. The written notice requirement upon the landlord under this subsection shall be considered to have been complied with if the rental agreement contains the following or a substantially equivalent provision:
> IF YOU DO NOT PAY YOUR RENT ON TIME
> This is your notice. If you do not pay your rent within five days of the due date, then landlord can start to have you evicted. You will get no other notice as long as you live in this rental unit.
> The presence of this provision in the rental agreement fully satisfies the "written notice" requirement under this subsection and applies to a month-to-month tenancy following the specified lease term in the original rental agreement. If the rental agreement contains the provision set forth in this subsection, the landlord is not required to furnish any separate or additional written notice to the tenant in order to commence eviction proceedings for nonpayment of rent even after the original term of the rental agreement has expired.

Appellants' Notice of Appeal filed on or about January 28, 2026, stated that "[i]n December 2025, my rent payment was late due to the significant expenses incurred during the move-in process. I acknowledged the late payment and agreed to pay the late fee." The Magistrate's Return indicated that it found that the Appellants were delinquent in rental payments totaling Five Thousand Eight Hundred Seven and 56/100 ($5,807.56) Dollars, and Five Hundred and No/100 ($500.00) Dollars. The Appellants' Notice of Appeal conceded they were delinquent in the payment of rent.

The record reflects that the written lease agreement between the parties contained the statutory language about late payment of rent. Further, the record reflects that Appellants were provided additional notice about the delinquency and the Appellees decision to terminate the lease.

Therefore, the Magistrate Court properly issued the Warrant of Ejectment in accordance with South Carolina law. The Court finds no error in fact or law in the Magistrate Court proceedings.

ORDER

Based on the foregoing Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, it is hereby ORDERED that:

1. The appeal of Appellants is DENIED;
2. The judgment of the Magistrate Court is AFFIRMED in all respects;
3. Any Stay of Execution, if any exists, is hereby DISSOLVED.
4. Appellees may proceed with the execution of the Warrant of Ejectment in accordance with applicable law.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.

P R O C E E D I N G S

UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Next case is Josetta Singleton versus AMH Development, LLC.

THE COURT: Good morning. I see Ms. Singleton out there. And who else do I have present for this matter? Ms. Singleton, can you put your camera and your microphone on?

MS. SINGLETON: I apologize, Your Honor. I was having a little difficulties with my camera, but I was more concerned about getting on, so I could not -- I could not see, you know, with the camera, (indiscernible), Your Honor.

THE COURT: Do you see at the bottom, it says, start video next to the mute button?

MS. SINGLETON: Yes, ma'am. It's just that I'm on my house computer, and my house computer does not -- because my cell phone is not working at the moment, so I had a little issues going on with the camera, so.

THE COURT: Okay.

MS. SINGLETON: Yeah, so I -- like I said, I don't have a camera on my desktop.

THE COURT: That's fine. That's not a problem. All right. And who do we have on the other side of this?

MS. SINGLETON: I have my fiancé, (Indiscernible).

THE COURT: Well, no, I mean, as far as the other party. Is this your appeal, Ms. Singleton?

MS. SINGLETON: Yes, this is my appeal. My landlord, which is AMH.

THE COURT: Is anyone present for that?

MS. SINGLETON: It doesn't seem to be, no.

THE COURT: All right. Ms. Singleton, we will just double check that they received proper notice to be present. But I'll be go ahead -- I'll go ahead and be happy to hear from you as far as your appeal.

As -- as you know -- I'm not sure if you know or not, but being pro se litigant, you understand that the only issues before the court is that the judge made an error in the law, not the findings of fact. So if you could stick to what the judge did wrong legally, rather than their perception as to the facts.

MS. SINGLETON: Okay. So for one, I was not given a chance to speak why or anything like that. However, I did have my money order and everything ready to be paid in December. They held my rent payments and everything so that they can charge on an extra eviction fee and late fees as well.

However, I did exactly what the judge ordered. You know, at the time, I filed for the appeals and I paid the full bond of 93 -- $9,378.53. That bond was posted. However, after the judge -- the judge awarded that, he also awarded the rent being paid at 2494 per month, and to the appeal. However, after -- right after court, on February the 5th, AMH, had -- they started with all kind of charges.

When I say all kind of charges, it's like charges that was already duplicate -- duplicated with the bond to stay order. So now the balance is 1,500 on top of the monthly rent that they wanted. So my balance totally is $3,433.00. I printed that off today. You guys don't have that.

I guess I had that sent yesterday to the courts, so you guys don't have that, but you do -- you do have the $1,000 -- I think it's $1,005.53 or something like that. You guys do have proof of that. But like I said, they tagged on extra fees after the judge, you know, awarded that bond to stay, as well as charging an eviction fee after that on the 6th, a late fee, everything.

So, yeah, they tried to get me to dismiss it last week, but I still have issues, because I have maintenance issues as well that they're -- they're not fixing, so yes, ma'am.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you, Ms. Singleton. I have to just really take a look at the return and look at the -- you know, the record on return and everything that the magistrate ruled on, and then I'll issue an opinion, okay?

MS. SINGLETON: Okay.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you, ma'am.

THERE BEING NOTHING FURTHER, THE HEARING CONCLUDED.)

Case No: 2025CV0810606094

MOTION TO ENFORCE COURT STAY ORDER
AND FOR CLARIFICATION OF BALANCE

COMES NOW the Defendant, Josetta Singleton, and respectfully moves this Court for enforcement of its prior stay order and clarification of the amount required to remain in compliance.

1. This Court previously ordered Defendant to pay a specific bond amount in order to remain in possession of the rental property.
2. The Court further instructed Defendant to continue paying current rent directly to the landlord at the Charleston office using certified funds.
3. Defendant complied in good faith by making substantial payments toward the bond balance and continuing rent payments as directed.
4. After the bond amount was satisfied or substantially satisfied, Plaintiff continued adding additional eviction attorney fees, late fees, and litigation-related charges.
5. These additional charges created a new alleged balance of approximately $2,703.29, effectively converting the Court's fixed stay amount into a continuously increasing balance.
6. Defendant is unable to determine the exact lawful amount required to remain in compliance due to the ongoing addition of eviction-related fees.

WHEREFORE, Defendant respectfully requests that this Court:

a. Enforce its prior stay order;

b. Determine and state a fixed balance, if any, that Defendant must pay to remain in compliance;

c. Prohibit Plaintiff from adding further eviction-related attorney fees without additional Court approval;

d. Order Plaintiff to provide a corrected ledger consistent with the Court's ruling;

e. Grant such other relief as the Court deems just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

Case No. 2026-CP-08-00297

EMERGENCY MOTION TO DETERMINE COMPLIANCE, ACCEPT TENDER, AND PERMIT DEPOSIT OF APPEAL BOND INTO COURT REGISTRY

Defendant/Appellant, Josetta Singleton, appearing pro se, respectfully moves this Court for an Order determining compliance with the Court's bond order, accepting Appellant's tender of payment as timely under the circumstances, and permitting deposit of all appeal bond payments into the Registry of the Court.

In support of this Motion, Appellant states:

1. On May 26, 2026, a hearing was held before this Court regarding bond and stay issues pending appeal.
2. A written order was subsequently entered on June 4, 2026 requiring an appeal bond payment of $3,977.25 and monthly payments of $2,494.50 plus utilities.
3. Appellant is a pro se litigant and is not an electronic filer.
4. Appellant relies upon service by mail for receipt of court orders and notices.
5. Appellant did not receive a copy of the Court's signed Order before the June 1, 2026 payment deadline contained therein.
6. Upon learning of the existence of the Order on June 5, 2026, Appellant immediately attempted to tender the required payment.
7. The payment was refused by Plaintiff's representative on the basis that payment was allegedly due on June 1, 2026.
8. Appellant explained that the written Order was not signed and entered until June 4, 2026 and that Appellant had only become aware of the Order on June 5, 2026.
9. Appellant has acted in good faith and has made every effort to comply with the Court's directives.

cc:
Q.S.

10. Any alleged noncompliance was not willful and resulted from the lack of timely notice of the written Order and Plaintiff's refusal to accept payment after Appellant became aware of the Order.
11. Appellant remains ready, willing, and able to immediately deposit the required funds.
12. Depositing the funds into the Registry of the Court will protect all parties, preserve the status quo, eliminate disputes regarding payment crediting, and ensure compliance pending appellate review.
13. Equity, due process, and fundamental fairness weigh heavily in favor of allowing Appellant to cure any alleged default where Appellant attempted compliance immediately upon receiving notice.

WHEREFORE, Appellant respectfully requests that this Court:

A. Determine that Appellant acted in good-faith compliance with the Court's Order;

B. Find that Appellant's attempted tender on June 5, 2026 substantially complied with the Court's requirements;

C. Permit Appellant to immediately deposit the appeal bond and future monthly bond payments into the Registry of the Court;

D. Direct that such deposits satisfy all bond obligations pending appeal;

E. Continue all stays presently in effect;

F. Grant such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

Case No. 2026-CP-08-00297

AFFIDAVIT OF JOSETTA SINGLETON IN SUPPORT OF EMERGENCY MOTION TO DETERMINE COMPLIANCE, ACCEPT TENDER, AND PERMIT DEPOSIT OF APPEAL BOND INTO COURT REGISTRY

Personally appeared before me, the undersigned Affiant, Josetta Singleton, who being first duly sworn, states under oath as follows:

1. I am the Appellant in the above-captioned matter and make this Affidavit based upon my personal knowledge.
2. I am representing myself pro se in these proceedings and am not an electronic filer.
3. As a pro se litigant, I rely upon service by mail and communications from the Clerk of Court regarding orders entered in my case.
4. On May 26, 2026, a hearing was held before the Honorable S. Bryan Doby concerning bond and stay issues related to my appeal.
5. Following the hearing, I actively attempted to determine the status of the Court's ruling and whether a written order had been entered.
6. Prior to learning of the Court's Order, I personally went to the Berkeley County Circuit Court and spoke with court personnel, including Sonya and Clerk Alexis, regarding the status of the Court's ruling.
7. During those inquiries, I was informed that the matter remained under advisement and that no final order had yet been issued.
8. Based upon the information provided to me, I reasonably understood that the Court had not yet entered a final order concerning the appeal bond.
9. I did not receive a copy of any signed order by mail before June 1, 2026.
10. I was not aware that an appeal bond order had been entered prior to June 5, 2026.
11. On June 5, 2026, I learned for the first time that the Court had entered an Order concerning the appeal bond.
12. Upon learning of the Order, I immediately acted to comply with its requirements.

13. I went to tender payment in accordance with the Court's Order as soon as I became aware of it.
14. AMH's Regional Manager, Tradd, informed me that the payment could not be accepted because it was allegedly due on June 1, 2026.
15. I explained that the Court's written Order had not been entered until June 4, 2026, and that I had only learned of the Order on June 5, 2026.
16. Despite my immediate and good-faith effort to comply with the Court's Order, the payment was refused.
17. At no time did I intentionally fail to comply with any Court order.
18. I have acted diligently throughout these proceedings and have consistently attempted to comply with all court requirements.
19. Any alleged noncompliance was not the result of willful disregard of the Court's authority but resulted from the lack of timely notice of the signed Order and AMH's refusal to accept payment once I became aware of the Order.
20. I remain ready, willing, and able to immediately deposit the required funds.
21. Depositing the appeal bond into the Registry of the Court would protect all parties, preserve the status quo, prevent further disputes concerning payment, and ensure compliance while appellate proceedings remain pending.
22. I respectfully request that this Court determine that I acted in good faith, find substantial compliance under the circumstances, accept my attempted tender, authorize deposit of the appeal bond into the Registry of the Court, and continue all stays presently in effect.
23. I further request any additional relief the Court deems just, equitable, and proper.

FURTHER AFFIANT SAYETH NOT.

Attempted Rent Payment Documentation – 129 Anthurium Drive Summerville SC 29486

Josetta Singleton <singletonjosetta02@gmail.com> Tue, May 5, 2026 at 2:35 PM
To: Tami Joyner <tjoyner@amh.com>, Tradd Shepard <tshepard@amh.com>

Dear AMH Management,

I am writing to formally document my attempt to make a rent payment today.

On May 5, 2026, at approximately 12:10 PM, I went in person to make a payment in the amount of $2,494.50. However, I was informed by the Tradd that the legal team were unable to accept my payment due to my pending appeal with the Court of Appeals.

I want to ensure there is a clear record that I made a good-faith effort to pay my rent and remain current on my obligations. Please advise on how I can proceed with making payments while the appeal is ongoing, or if there is an alternative method for submitting payment during this time.

If needed, I can provide supporting documentation or proof of my attempt to pay.

Thank you for your time and clarification.

Sincerely,
Josetta Singleton

Documentation of Attempt to Pay Appeal Bond

2 messages

Josetta Singleton <singletonjosetta02@gmail.com> Fri, Jun 5, 2026 at 4:57 PM
To: Tradd Shepard <tshepard@amh.com>

Dear AMH Legal Team,

I am writing to document that on June 5, 2026, at approximately 4:20 p.m., I went to the leasing office with the intent to make the appeal bond payment.

After learning that an order had been entered, I immediately attempted to make the required payment. However, I have not yet received a copy of the signed order because the Clerk of Court advised that the order is being sent by mail. I was informed that the order was signed by Judge Doby on June 4, 2026.

When I attempted to make the appeal bond payment today, the payment was denied by Tradd and the legal team. As a result, I was unable to complete the payment despite my efforts to do so.

I am sending this email to document that I made a good-faith attempt to comply and tender the appeal bond payment as soon as I became aware that the order had been signed.

Please confirm receipt of this email and advise how I should proceed with making the appeal bond payment once authorization is provided.

Thank you,

Josetta Singleton
