SC Court of Appeals

(Please Return a Clockstamp Copy) 6/20/26

This appeal follows a hearing held in Greenville City. Courthouse on 6/19/26 at AM approx 11:20 with judge McIntosh presiding, to relieve counsel for Warrant NO: 2024A233020 (8875, 8898, 8981, 9144, and 71696).

I Phillip Reeves am now pro-se and appealing a decision made by the judge not responding or acknowledging an open court move to dismiss for lack of evidence, I have been incarcerated since (Sept 18, 2024)

It was very very clearly stated in open court that "this case is entirely circumstantial" by counsel. Once I was granted pro-se I immediately moved to dismiss. The judge did not acknowledge it and stated "well were not here today for that". He did ask the solicitor "where the case sits" and the solicitor Doug Richardson stated "well your honor were still waiting on forensic evidence". I got upset and repeatedly informed the judge that "none of the accusations are indicted by a Grand Jury and "this court lacks jurisdiction, no crime has been committed, and is improper before this court" and "how this case is moving forward when (due process is lacking)".

I feel that me being granted pro-se and moved in open court of record with a verbal motion, the judge should have granted or denied it. There is no evidence say I did anything, never will be, because I have done nothing wrong and am accused of something I have no knowledge of. I am moving to dismiss for no evidence!
