

IN THE SOUTH CAROLINA COURT OF APPEALS

Appellate Case No.: 2026-001041

Jason Fetzer,
Appellant,

MOTION FOR REVIEW AND RELIEF FROM DUE PROCESS ERROR REGARDING REMITTITUR, FAILURE OF NOTICE, FAILURE TO PROVIDE RESPONSE, AND FAILURE TO PROVIDE NOTICE
OF PENDING APPEALS AND PRIOR DISPOSITIONS

COMES NOW the Appellant, Jason Fetzer, and respectfully moves this Court for review and relief concerning alleged procedural due process errors involving notice, response, appellate proceedings, prior dispositions, and remittitur.

RELATED LOWER COURT CASE NUMBERS

20240610553754
20240610553758
20240610562563
20240610562565
2024CP4005212
2024CP4005319
2024CP4005327

STATEMENT OF FACTS

Appellant initiated appellate proceedings and delivered required appeal documents in person with proof of service on September 3rd, 2024, to the appropriate court offices, including the Richland County Clerk of Court and the South Carolina Court of Appeals in Columbia, South Carolina.

Appellant asserts that failures involving notice of pending appeals, scheduling compliance, responses to notices, and remittitur-related proceedings affected the ability to receive meaningful notice and an opportunity to be heard.

FAILURE OF DUE PROCESS THROUGH FAILURE TO PROVIDE A RESPONSE

Appellant asserts that properly submitted filings, notices, and requests for review were not responded to in a manner providing meaningful notice of their

RECEIVED

Jul 01 2026

SC Court of Appeals

status or disposition.

REQUEST FOR RELIEF

Appellant respectfully requests review of the appellate record, docket entries, proof of service documentation, notice procedures, scheduling compliance, and remittitur-related actions; and requests any relief necessary if procedural error is established.

Respectfully submitted,

Jason Fetzer, Appellant

8309 N Alaska St
Tampa, FL 33604

Phone: 619-994-0081

Email: jasonfetzer373373@gmail.com

Date of Filing and Signature:
July 1, 2026