Order Granting Summary Judgment of April 11, 2025

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA

COUNTY OF FLORENCE

CBL Services,

Plaintiff,

vs.

Ryan Antonio Burgess,

Defendant,

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS

C/A No: 2024-CP-21-01953

ORDER GRANTING SUMMARY JUDGMENT

0068-24-0001

This matter comes before me upon Motion of the Plaintiff, CBL Services, pursuant to Rule 56 of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, seeking an Order Granting Summary Judgment in this matter. This is a collection matter.

On July 30, 2024, Plaintiff's counsel filed and served a Motion for Summary Judgment with a supporting affidavit. No counter-affidavit was filed.

The hearing on this matter was held before me on April 7, 2025, at the Florence County Courthouse. Present and participating in the hearing was Jason M. Hunter of the law firm Crawford & von Keller, LLC for the Plaintiff. The Defendant Ryan Antonio Burgess appeared pro se.

Based upon the proof made of the facts and circumstances alleged in the pleadings, through the affidavit in support of summary judgment, and the Verified Statement of Account, I find, conclude and order as follows:

STANDARD

Summary Judgment is warranted only if there is no genuine issue as to any material fact and the moving party is entitled to a judgment as a matter of law. Rule 56(c), SCRPC. "In determining whether any triable issues of fact exist, the evidence and all inferences which can be reasonably drawn from the evidence must be viewed in the light most favorable to the non-moving party." Bloom v. Ravoira, 339 S.C. 417, 529 S.E.2d 710 (2000). The moving party has the initial burden of demonstrating the absence of a genuine issue of material fact. However, once the party moving for summary judgment meets the initial burden of showing an absence of evidentiary support for the opponent's case, the opponent must come forward with specific facts showing there is a genuine issue for trial." Garvin v. Bi-Lo, Inc., 337 S.C. 436, 523 S.E.2d 481 (Ct. App. 1999). The opponent cannot merely rely upon the pleadings, but must submit some additional evidence creating a genuine issue of material fact.

When plain, palpable, and indisputable facts exist on which reasonable minds cannot differ, summary judgment should be granted. Ellis v. Davidson, 358 S.C. 509, 595 S.E.2d 817 (Ct. App. 2004). The purpose of summary judgment is to expedite disposition of cases which do not require the services of a fact finder.

Dawkins v. Fields, 354 S.C. 58, 580 S.E.2d 433 (2003). "It is a gratuitous cruelty to the parties and their witnesses to put them through the emotional ordeal when the outcome is foreordained" and in such cases summary judgment is appropriate. Mason v. Continental Illinois National Bank, 704 F.2d 361, 367 (7th Cir. 1983).

FINDINGS OF FACT

- 1) The Summons and Complaint along with a verified Statement of Account were filed by the Plaintiff on July 30, 2024, seeking judgment against the Defendant for a deficiency balance owed on a contract in the amount of $35,934.63.
- 2) Plaintiff is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the United States of America and is authorized to do business in the State of South Carolina.
- 3) Defendant is a resident of the State of South Carolina and has availed himself of the jurisdiction of this Court by making a voluntary, general appearance in the instant case.
- 4) This Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to South Carolina Code of Laws Ann. § 36-2-802 and 36-2-803(A)(1) and (7).
- 5) On or about September 22, 2021, Defendant Ryan Antonio Burgess on behalf of Ryan Transport, LLC made, executed and delivered to North Mill Credit Trust, for valid consideration given, a certain Commercial Security Agreement, Personal Guaranty, Certificate of Incumbency and Authority, Authorization Agreement for Automatic Withdrawal from Account, Electronic Record and Signature Disclosure, and North Mill Credit Insurance Requirements (hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Contract") in writing, wherein and whereby payment was promised to North Mill Credit Trust or its order the sum of Seventy-One Thousand, Eight Hundred Fifty-Seven and 98/100 ($71,857.98) Dollars pursuant to the terms and conditions set out in the Contract.
- 6) For valuable consideration given, and to further induce the Plaintiff's predecessor-in-interest to enter into the Contract, Defendant Burgess did Personally Guaranty the amounts due under the Contract delivered to Plaintiff on or about September 22, 2021. Defendant Ryan Antonio Burgess, as Personal Guarantor, promised to repay Plaintiff the amounts due under the Contract in the event that Ryan Transport, LLC failed to abide by the terms of the Contract at issue.
- 7) Ryan Transport, LLC was initially a Defendant in the instant case, but was dismissed by the Plaintiff upon discovery that it was no longer a going concern.
- 8) The subject Contract was subsequently assigned to the Plaintiff.
- 9) The Contract enabled Ryan Transport, LLC to purchase a 2018 Wabash Articlite Dry Freight 53 foot Trailer. Ryan Transport, LLC granted a security interest in said collateral unto Plaintiff's predecessor-in-interest.
- 10) Ryan Transport, LLC defaulted on payment under the Contract, and on or about November 2022, Ryan Transport, LLC surrendered the collateral unto Plaintiff's predecessor-in-interest.

11) On or about November 15, 2022, a Notice of Public Private Sale was issued unto Defendant Ryan Antonio Burgess and Ryan Transport, LLC.

12) A subsequent sale of the subject collateral was held in a commercially reasonable manner, producing proceeds of $26,000.00 which were applied to the subject account. On or about February 9, 2023, a Notice was issued Defendant Ryan Antonio Burgess and Ryan Transport, LLC notifying them of a then-remaining deficiency balance of $32,836.32, as well as their responsibility for said deficiency. This balance remains unpaid.

13) As Ryan Transport, LLC has failed to cure the deficiency, and as a result of the subject guaranty, Defendant Ryan Antonio Burgess is responsible for payment of the balance owed under the Contract to the Plaintiff.

14) Pursuant to the subject Personal Guaranty, Defendant Ryan Antonio Burgess is responsible for payment of all attorneys' fees incurred by Plaintiff in the instant case.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Due to the foregoing, it is therefore ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that:

- a) The Plaintiff's Motion for Summary Judgment against the Defendant is granted;
- b) The Defendant's Answer filed on November 8, 2024 in the instant case is hereby dismissed with prejudice;
- c) The Defendant's Answer filed on November 12, 2024 in the instant case is hereby dismissed with prejudice;
- d) The Defendant's Motion for Reconsideration filed February 11, 2025 in the instant case is hereby denied;
- e) Defendant Ryan Antonio Burgess is found to be responsible for the amounts owed under the subject Contract;
- f) I further find that the Plaintiff is entitled to attorneys fees and costs as set forth in the subject Personal Guaranty;
- g) This matter is to be scheduled for a default damages hearing to determine the amounts owed under the subject Contract.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED!

The Plaintiff, complaining of the above-named Defendants, would respectfully show unto this Court:

1. That the Plaintiff is a corporation organized and existing pursuant to the laws of one of the states of the United States.
2. That on information and belief, Defendant Ryan Transport, LLC (hereinafter "Defendant Transport"), is a business organized and doing business under the laws of the State of South Carolina, County of Florence.
3. That on information and belief, Defendant Ryan Antonio Burgess (hereinafter "Defendant Burgess"), is a resident of Florence County, South Carolina.
4. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter and parties to this action pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. §§ 36-2-802, -803(A)(1) and (7).

FOR A FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
(Suit on Contract as to Defendant Transport)

5. Plaintiff reincorporates and realleges each of the foregoing allegations as fully as if repeated herein verbatim.

6. That on or about September 22, 2021, Defendant Transport made, executed and delivered to North Mill Credit Trust, for valid consideration given, a certain Commercial Security Agreement, Personal Guaranty, Certificate of Incumbency and Authority, Authorization Agreement for Automatic Withdrawal from Account, Electronic Record and Signature Disclosure, and North Mill Credit Insurance Requirements (hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Contract") in writing, wherein and whereby payment was promised to North Mill Credit Trust or its order the sum of Seventy-One Thousand, Eight Hundred Fifty-Seven and 98/100 ($71,857.98) Dollars in the terms and conditions set out in the Contract, a copy of which is attached herewith as Exhibit "A" and incorporated herein by reference; that said Contract contained an acceleration clause, and provided that the Defendant shall be liable for any deficiency resulting from the sale of the collateral.

7. That the contract was subsequently assigned to the Plaintiff herein.

8. Defendant Transport defaulted under the terms of the Contract.

9. Plaintiff sent Defendant Transport a Notice of Default and Right to Cure on or about October 10, 2022, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit "B". However, Defendants did not cure the default accordingly.

10. On or about November 15, 2022, Plaintiff repossessed the Collateral.

11. That on or about November 15, 2022, Plaintiff gave statutory notice to Defendant Transport of its intention to sell the property ten (10) days or more after the date of said notice, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit "C" and its terms are incorporated herein by reference.

12. On or about February 9, 2023, Plaintiff received payment under the terms of the private sale and the proceeds were applied as follows:

a.	Net Unpaid Principal Balance as of Date of Sale	$52,866.00
b.	Less Gross Sales Proceeds Received	$28,000.00
c.	Total expenses to be added to deficiency	$2,400.00
d.	Late Fees	$220.26
e.	Termination/Documentation Fees	$375.00
f.	Due/Deficiency	$27,861.26

13. On or about February 9, 2023, Plaintiff provided written notice to Defendant Transport of the sale results and remaining deficiency, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit "D", and its terms are incorporated herein by reference.

14. Defendant Transport is in default under the terms of the Contract.

15. Plaintiff seeks to exercise its rights under the terms of the Contract.

16. Plaintiff has made demand for payment, and Defendant Transport has failed and refused, and continues to fail and refuse, to pay said indebtedness.

17. Plaintiff has placed this matter with the undersigned attorneys for collection.

18. Plaintiff is informed and believes that it is entitled to judgment against Defendant Transport in the amount of $35,934.63 plus the attorney's fees and court costs incurred in this matter.

AS A SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
(Suit on Guaranty)

19. Plaintiff reincorporates and realleges each of the foregoing allegations as fully as if repeated herein verbatim.

20. For valuable consideration given, to further induce the Plaintiff to enter into the Contract, Defendant Burgess did Personally Guaranty (hereinafter referred to as the "Guarantee") the amounts due under the Contract delivered to Plaintiff on or about September 22, 2021.

Defendant Burgess, as Personal Guarantor, promised to repay Plaintiff the amounts due under the Contract in the event that Defendant Transport failed to abide by the terms of the Contract at issue.

21. Pursuant to the terms of the Guarantee, in the event of default by Defendant Transport, Defendant Burgess promised to pay the amounts due under the Contract. The Guarantee is included in the Contract attached as Exhibit A.

22. Defendant Transport is in default under the terms of the Contract.

23. Plaintiff seeks to exercise its rights under the terms of the Guarantee.

24. Pursuant to its rights under the Guarantee, Plaintiff has elected to declare all sums due under the Guarantee at once due and payable reserving, however, any and all other rights and remedies Plaintiff may have.

25. Plaintiff has placed this matter with the undersigned attorneys for collection.

26. That pursuant to the terms of the Contract, Plaintiff is entitled to its attorney's fees and court costs for the maintenance of this action.

27. Plaintiff is informed and believes that it is entitled to judgment against the Defendant Burgess in the amount of $35,934.63 plus the attorney's fees and court costs incurred in this matter.

WHEREFORE, the Plaintiff prays that the Court enter an Order;

1. Granting Plaintiff a judgment against Defendant Transport as to the First Cause of Action in the sum of Thirty-Five Thousand, Nine Hundred Thirty-Four and 63/100 ($35,934.63) Dollars, plus interest, costs and attorney's fees;
2. Granting Plaintiff a judgment against Defendant Burgess as to the Second Cause of Action in the sum of Thirty-Five Thousand, Nine Hundred Thirty-Four and 63/100 ($35,934.63) Dollars, plus interest, costs and attorney's fees.

2 (WHEREUPON, the proceedings began at 9:42 AM.)

3 THE COURT: The next case is CBL Services, LLC, versus
4 Ryan Transport, LLC.

5 MR. HUNTER: Good morning, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Good morning.

7 THE DEFENDANT BURGESS: Good morning, Judge.

8 THE COURT: Good morning. How are you doing?

9 THE DEFENDANT BURGESS: Pretty good, sir.

10 THE COURT: Good. You're free to -- you can have a seat
11 if you would like.

12 THE DEFENDANT BURGESS: Okay.

13 THE COURT: We'll -- we'll recognize the plaintiff first,
14 and then I'm going to recognize you. Does that sound fair?

15 THE DEFENDANT BURGESS: Yes, sir.

16 THE COURT: All right. Very good. Yes, sir?

17 MR. HUNTER: Thank you, Your Honor.

18 It's, of course, up to you how you want to take these up.
19 I believe the defendant filed a motion to reconsider, he had 20 requested a jury trial, and we have filed a -- a motion for 21 summary judgment. If it's all right with you, I can address
22 the motion to reconsider first.

23 THE COURT: Yes.

24 MR. HUNTER: Thank you, Your Honor.

25 So, Your Honor, you might recall that the defendant filed

1 a motion to dismiss, claiming that the Court did not have 2 personal jurisdiction over him. Your Honor, if you look at 3 Rule 4(d) and it says in the order a voluntary appearance is 4 equivalent to personal service. The defendant was claiming at 5 a prior hearing he was never served.

6 He did file in, I believe, November of 2024 a general
7 denial with some affirmative defenses. He has made a general
8 appearance. He has waived any -- any claim that the Court
9 does not have personal jurisdiction over him.

10 Your Honor, not that you need it, but I do have a -- if I
11 could approach?

12 THE COURT: Yeah.

13 MR. HUNTER: I do have a Supreme Court case that states
14 that -- if you'll indulge me. It says by making a general
15 appearance in an action, the defendant waives any objection to 16 jurisdiction of the person.

17 Now, I'm unsure what rules -- Rule of Civil Procedure
18 we're proceeding under here as far as the motion to 19 reconsider, but there's no new evidence in this case. There's 20 no question that the evidence upon which the motion was denied
21 was sufficient. We're just looking at the public record here,
22 of course. There's been no intervening change in the law.
23 There's no evidence of any surprise or mistake.

24 Accordingly, the judgment should be denied.

25 THE COURT: All right. Yes, sir. I'd be glad to hear

1 from you.

2 THE DEFENDANT BURGESS: Yes, sir.

3 THE COURT: With regard to the jurisdiction.

4 THE DEFENDANT BURGESS: Yes, sir. Well, first of all,
5 I'd like to address that I did not waive my right. I did not
6 waive anything of my right to saying that the Court doesn't
7 have jurisdiction.

8 THE COURT: Did you -- did you file an answer?

9 THE DEFENDANT BURGESS: Yes, sir. That was in my 10 original motion to dismiss.

11 THE COURT: All right.

12 THE DEFENDANT: And yeah, I have a response to the motion
13 for summary judgment.

14 THE COURT: All right. Well, based on that, I do indeed
15 find that this Court does have jurisdiction because of your 16 general appearance, but --

17 THE DEFENDANT BURGESS: But --

18 THE COURT: -- we'll address the issue with regard to 19 summary judgment at this juncture.

20 THE DEFENDANT BURGESS: He made a statement to you just 21 now, Your Honor. He said I waived my right. I did not waive
22 my right.

23 THE COURT: Well, by your actions, you did. And you're 24 protected on the record, and you can appeal the decision if 25 you want to, but at this juncture, we're going to take up the

1 -- the motion for summary judgment, and I'll be glad to hear
2 from the moving party.

3 MR. HUNTER: Thank you, Your Honor. Jason Hunter again
4 for the plaintiff.

5 Your Honor, and just to clarify, I believe what was filed
6 was just our general form motion for summary judgment. The 7 only thing I'm seeking today to accomplish through our motion,
8 Your Honor, is to deal with the defendant's answer and allow 9 us to move on to a damages hearing.

10 So with that being clarified, Your Honor, this is a
11 collection case. It concerns the purchase of a 53-foot
12 trailer, the type that can be connected to a tractor and used
13 for over-the-road hauling. Back in September of 2021,
14 defendant decided through his LLC he needed to purchase this 15 piece of equipment. That piece of equipment was purchased in 16 2021 for $48,600. That purchase was financed by the 17 plaintiff's predecessor in interest.

18 Now, pursuant to that purchase, the defendant, on behalf
19 of the LLC, executed a note, a security agreement granting a 20 security interest in that collateral. Defendant also executed
21 a personal guarantee, guaranteeing that should the LLC fail to 22 abide by the terms of contract, then he would be personally
23 responsible.

24 The loan is to be repaid in 57 monthly payments of 25 $1,250.14. Those payments began in October of 2021.

1 Now, the loan didn't work out. The LLC went into payment
2 default. And around November of 2022, the collateral was 3 surrendered. That same month, the plaintiff's predecessor in 4 interest sent out a notice notifying the defendant personally
5 and the LLC that they intended to sell the collateral, apply
6 the proceeds to the deficiency, and that he would be 7 responsible for any remaining deficiency.

8 The property was sold. Proceeds of $26,000 were applied
9 to that debt. And in February of 2023, a deficiency notice
10 was sent to the LLC and to the defendant personally informing 11 them of the application of his proceeds, of the deficiency
12 balance, and the fact that they remained liable for the 13 payment of that. If they failed to pay it, it would be sued.
14 And of course, the deficiency was not paid, and we are here
15 today.

16 Your Honor, everything I've just said has been attested
17 to in an affidavit. Along with our affidavit, we included a 18 copy of the agreement, a copy of the bill of sale for this 19 trailer, the collateral, copies of documents evidencing the 20 transfer of the debt to my client, to the plaintiff. We 21 included the pre-sale notice and the post-sale deficiency
22 notice.

23 Defendant has -- and it's clear in the record he's 24 clearly kept up with this lawsuit. He submitted no evidence
25 contradicting anything in the plaintiff's pleadings, neither

1 anything the plaintiff says in their affidavit, or any of the 2 plaintiff's exhibits. There's no evidence in front of the 3 Court that contradicts any of that.

4 There's -- we've sent discovery to the defendant, and 5 that discovery included -- we haven't gotten any discovery
6 back. That discovery included requests to admit that dealt
7 with all the defendant's affirmative defenses. All that stuff
8 is now deemed admitted.

9 The undisputed facts of this case clearly show that the 10 plaintiff should be afforded judgment as a matter of law.
11 There's no genuine dispute as to any material facts that 12 require resolution at a trial.

13 For that reason, we're requesting that the Court grant
14 our motion and allow us to schedule a damages hearing in -- in 15 the case. Thank you, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Yes, sir. I'd be glad to hear from you.

17 THE DEFENDANT BURGESS: Yes, sir. I have a response.
18 It's -- it's captioned Defendant's Response to Plaintiff's
19 Motion for Summary Judgment.

20 On March 14th, 2025, plaintiff, through its attorney,
21 filed a motion for summary judgment seeking an order on the 22 grounds that there are no genuine issues as to any material
23 facts and that plaintiff is entitled to such order as a matter
24 of law. He is wrong. Plaintiff's motion for summary judgment
25 should be denied.

1 Plaintiff is not entitled to an order of summary judgment
2 as a matter of law. There are clearly definitely genuine
3 issues as to material facts.

4 First and foremost, defendant responded to plaintiff's
5 motion and complaint, and that record speaks for itself.
6 Defendant denied everything that was alleged. Defendant takes 7 issue with the fact that plaintiff is still allowed to proceed
8 in this matter against defendant Ryan Antonio Burgess, when,
9 in fact, the so-called contract was between North Mill Credit
10 Trust, an entity from the State of Connecticut, and now
11 dissolved South Carolina limited liability company, Ryan
12 Transport, LLC. Plaintiff has no right to pursue defendant
13 Ryan Antonio Burgess in this matter because defendant did not 14 knowingly, willing -- willfully or intentionally sign as a
15 personal guarantor for the above-mentioned limited liability
16 company.

17 And I ask this Court to force plaintiff to produce any
18 witnesses, such as a notary public or anyone from CBL
19 Services, LLC, whom I have no knowledge of, for the record, or 20 the original creditor, North Mill Credit Trust, that can 21 testify that they personally witnessed or have audio or video 22 of Ryan Antonio Burgess signing as a personal guarantor for
23 Ryan Transport, LLC.

24 Secondly, the Fourteenth and Fifth Amendments of the 25 United States Constitution guarantees every person, such as

1 Ryan Antonio Burgess, the right to a fair legal process that
2 protects fundamental rights. Ryan Antonio Burgess has a right
3 to due process. Granting plaintiff's motion for summary
4 judgment will surely violate defendant's due process rights
5 and right to a fair and impartial trial procedure.

6 Plaintiff is well aware of defendant's intentions to 7 proceed to a jury trial in this case, and on January 28th,
8 2025, plaintiff and defendant stood before this Court when 9 plaintiff heard defendant advise this Court in open court that 10 he wants to proceed to a jury trial, and this Court responded
11 to defendant, advising him that, at that junction, that's 12 where this case is headed.

13 On February 11th, 2025, defendant formally requested for 14 a jury trial by way of motion. Plaintiff is attempting to 15 avoid or avert the trial process and procedures by asking this 16 Court for an order of summary judgment, thus in violation of 17 defendant's due process rights.

18 For all of the above-mentioned facts, defendant
19 respectfully requests that this Court deny plaintiff's motion
20 for summary judgment. Respectfully submitted, Ryan Antonio
21 Burgess.

22 THE COURT: Do you have any affidavits or depositions or 23 any discovery to support what you just told me?

24 THE DEFENDANT BURGESS: No, sir, I don't.

25 THE COURT: I'll be glad to hear from the plaintiff, and

1 then I'll recognize you again.

2 THE DEFENDANT BURGESS: Okay.

3 THE COURT: What -- in reviewing the file, it appears as 4 if he did sign the note and a personal guarantee, didn't he?

5 MR. HUNTER: Yes, Your Honor, and I'll just point out
6 that, you know, he's responsible for the --

7 THE DEFENDANT BURGESS: Can I respond to that, Judge?

8 THE COURT: Hang on just one second.

9 THE DEFENDANT BURGESS: Okay.

10 MR. HUNTER: The defendant is, of course, responsible for 11 the content of the document. You can't execute a document and 12 then say, well, I didn't know what was in that. He's 13 responsible for the terms of the contract he signed.

14 Yes, Your Honor, it appears that he signed on behalf of 15 the LLC. He signed -- he signed the personal guarantee, you
16 know, giving himself the responsibility to be -- to undertake 17 any obligation the LLC did not take care of itself. He took 18 possession of the trailer. He returned the trailer. Yes,
19 Your Honor, he did.

20 THE COURT: All right. All right. Well, I'm going to 21 grant the motion for summary judgment and ask that you prepare 22 an order to that effect and allow the -- the defendant to --

23 THE DEFENDANT BURGESS: Judge, you're not going to let me
24 respond to that?

25 THE COURT: Yes. Yes, you can. Yes.

1 THE DEFENDANT BURGESS: Yes. I mean, before you make a
2 decision, I mean, you said I signed a personal guarantee, but
3 I maintain that I do not recognize this document. That's what 4 -- that's the reason I'm standing here today, because of this 5 one half page that I need a magnifying glass to read the 6 paper.

7 My signature is clearly not on this -- on this paper, and 8 that's what he is relying on to have me standing here other
9 than the LLC. He's relying on this little paper here that 10 doesn't have a signature -- my signature on it, and the -- and 11 the address is incorrect, and the personal guarantee is 12 incomplete.

13 I don't recognize this document. I believe it's 14 fraudulent. I was never told that I was signing a --

15 THE COURT: Did you -- did you get the trailer? Did you
16 get --

17 THE DEFENDANT BURGESS: I think it was false. I believe
18 it's fraudulent.

19 THE COURT: Did you get the trailer and use it?

20 THE DEFENDANT BURGESS: I did not. A limited liability
21 company did.

22 THE COURT: Oh, okay. All right. Well, let me see --

23 THE DEFENDANT BURGESS: I maintain that I --

24 THE COURT: Let me see the piece --

25 THE DEFENDANT BURGESS: -- did not sign this document.

1 THE COURT: Let me see that.

2 THE DEFENDANT BURGESS: I do not recognize this document.
3 I maintain that no one from North Mill Credit Trust ever went 4 over a personal guarantee. I believe they used tactics to -- 5 predatory lending tactics. I don't recognize that document.
6 Somehow, they slid it in there or I'm not sure if this -- who
7 the -- whoever the plaintiff is representing. They slid it
8 in.

9 I -- my signature is not -- clearly, if you look in the 10 signature block, it asks for my complete name. I did not sign
11 my complete name. The address is incomplete, and I addressed
12 that in my supplement to defendant's motion for 13 reconsideration of my motion to dismiss.

14 THE COURT: All right.

15 THE DEFENDANT BURGESS: And if you -- that's what he's 16 relying on. I don't believe I should be here, Your Honor, and 17 if you look at that paper, that paper does not give him any 18 right to have me here. That's incomplete and inaccurate.

19 THE COURT: All right.

20 THE DEFENDANT BURGESS: And I don't recognize it.

21 THE COURT: Well, at this juncture, motion for summary
22 judgment, you're required to support those allegations and 23 perhaps have evidence presented in the form of an affidavit
24 that's not your signature. You could have a handwriting
25 expert, but you haven't done that.

1 So, therefore, I'm going to rule in favor of the summary
2 judgment and give you an opportunity to appear for a damages
3 hearing.

4 THE DEFENDANT BURGESS: So just to be clear, my 5 statements about my right to a jury trial and violating my due
6 process rights and Fourteenth Amendment, you're going to just 7 --

8 THE COURT: Yes. Yes, I am.

9 THE DEFENDANT BURGESS: You're going to just deny it?

10 THE COURT: But you can appeal it.

11 THE DEFENDANT BURGESS: File an appeal?

12 THE COURT: You can appeal it.

13 THE DEFENDANT BURGESS: Say that again?

14 THE COURT: You can -- you can appeal that decision if 15 you choose to do so.

16 THE DEFENDANT BURGESS: Okay.

17 THE COURT: Very good. Good luck to you.

18 MR. HUNTER: Thank you, Your Honor.

MOTION TO DISMISS PURSUANT TO RULE 12(b) OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURES

On July 30, 2024 Plaintiff CBL Services, LLC thru its Attorneys Filed a Summons and Complaint against Defendants Ryan Transport, LLC and Ryan Antonio Burgess, In the above captioned case Number. On Number 08, 2024 defendants filed an Answer to the summons and complaint. On November 18, 2024 Plaintiff filed a Reply to defendants Answer. There were a Certificate of Service filed on November 18, 2024 containing a notice to defendants Stating that their Firm, Crawford & Von Keller, LLC will seek a default Judgment against Ryan Transport, LLC If the LLC does not retain a licensed attorney in this case. On December 6th and 9th of 2024 Plaintiff filed a letter advising defendants that it will ask this court for a default Judgment against Ryan Transport, LLC If an attorney does not appear to represent the LLC.

This case Must be Dismiss With Prejudice and all of Plaintiffs requests must be denied and Dismissed With Prejudice for the following reasons.

- 1) In Plaintiffs Summons and Complaint, Plaintiff Captioned the Defendants as Ryan Transport, LLC and Ryan Antonio Burgess. The defendants will show this court that Ryan Transport, LLC Was a business formed on November 10 2022 operating in South Carolina until Articles of Termination were filed and the business was Legally Dissolved on November 20, 2024. Ryan Transport, LLC did not exist during the time Plaintiff states in their summons and complaint. (See ~~Exhibit 1, NOTES of Plaintiff~~).

- 2) All of Plaintiff requests in their Summons and complaint, reply, and subsequent letters are Null and Void, and without merit because Plaintiff is asking this court for a judgment against a business that Articles of Organization was filed on November 10 2022 therefore, was not in existence at the time Plaintiff claims a contract was agreed to and have nothing to do with this case whatsoever.
- 3) Plaintiff stated in the summons and complaint that Ryan Transport, LLC is a business organized and doing business in South Carolina and that this court has jurisdiction. The defendants will show that this court does not have jurisdiction over this case because the business was Organized on November 10 2022 and Terminated on November 20 2024. (~~See Exhibit~~)
- 4) Plaintiff requests for a judgment against Ryan Antonio Burgess. That request must be denied because the business Plaintiff states Ryan Antonio Burgess is associated with in the summons and complaint and all documents filed thereafter is Dissolved and was not in existence at the time Plaintiff states in their summons and complaint.
- 5) The Plaintiff did not legally serve Defendants with the Summons and complaint in accordance with the laws of South Carolina. Plaintiff has Failed to properly serve Defendants.
- 6) Defendants does not Need an Attorney to Represent a company that is Not an active, actual, legally existing business in South Carolina and was not in existence at the time of Plaintiffs stated claims in their summons and complaint. Ryan Transport, LLC is not in existence.
- 7) Defendants deny all of Plaintiffs claims.
- 8). Defendants have never had any dealings with CBL Services, LLC

Based on the aforementioned facts, defendants Respectful request that this court Grant this Motion To Dismiss this case With Prejudice and Deny any and all of Plaintiffs requests.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION OF DEFENDANT'S MOTION TO DISMISS

On January 28 2025, this court held a hearing on defendant's MOTION To Dismiss. Defendant Ryan Antonio Burgess appeared before this court and stated his grounds for dismissal of this case. The Court Denied Defendant's Motion and issued an order of denial on February 10, 2025.

Defendant Ryan Antonio Burgess believes this court has erred in its findings and rulings of denying his MOTION to dismiss based on the following Facts and Reasons .

- 1) The Plaintiff did not properly Serve defendant with the Summons and complaint in accordance with South Carolina State Law. This court found that because defendant filed and answer to the summons and complaint and appeared in this case, that the Plaintiff basically does not have to comply with State Law as it relates to property serving the defendant and stated the defendant voluntarily appeared in this matter.

This Court is wrong and clearly has erred in its findings. At the hearing on the motion to dismiss, the court asked the defendant how did he became aware of this case. Defendant Ryan Antonio Burgess explained to this court he was made aware by typing his name on the courts website . Infact, the attorney for Plaintiff stated in open court to this court that there were no records of when and where defendant was served essentially acknowledging that defendant was not served. It is wrong and in error for this court to allow Plaintiff to disregard the law by not serving defendant properly.

2) This Court has No Jurisdiction over this matter. An LLC is a Limited Liability Company. The LLC associated with this case does not exist and Plaintiff cannot produce any witnesses to prove they witnessed Defendant Ryan Antonio Burgess signing a contract. Therefore this case Must be dismissed.

Based on the aforementioned Facts and Reasons, Defendant Ryan Antonio Burgess Respectful request that this court reconsider his MOTION To Dismiss and do Dismiss this case with Prejudice.

DEFENDANT RESPONSE TO PLAINTIFF
MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT

On March 14, 2025 Plaintiff, thru its attorney filed a Motion For Summary Judgment seeking an order on the grounds that there are no genuine issue as to any material fact and that Plaintiff is entitled to such order as a matter of law. He is Wrong.

Plaintiffs Motion for Summary Judgment should be Denied. Plaintiff is not entitled to an order of Summary Judgment as a matter of law. There are clearly, Definitely genuine issues as to material Facts.

First and foremost, Defendant responded to Plaintiffs Summons and Complaint and that record speaks for itself. Defendant denied everything that was alleged.

Defendant takes issue with the fact that Plaintiff is still allowed to proceed in this matter against Defendant Ryan Antonio Burgess when infact the so called Contract was between North Mill Credit Trust an entity from the state Of Connecticut and a now Desolved South Carolina Limited Liability Company, Ryan Transport LLC. Plaintiff has no right to pursue defendant Ryan Antonio Burgess in this matter because, Defendant DID NOT knowingly, willfully or intentionally signed as a personal guarantor for the above mentioned Limited Liability Company and I ask this court to force plaintiff to produce any witnesses such as a Notary Public or anyone from CBL Services LLC, whom I have no Knowledge of For the Record, or the Original Cridtor Noth Mill Credit Trust, that can testify that they personally witnessed or have audio or video of Ryan Antonio Burgess signing as a personal guarantor for Ryan Transport LLC.

Secondly, the Fourteenth and Fifth amendments of the United States Constitution guarantees every person such as Ryan Antonio Burgess the right to a fair legal process and protects fundamental right. Ryan Antonio Burgess has a right to Due Process. Granting Plaintiffs Motion for Summary Judgment will surely violate Defendants Due Process Rights and Right to a fair and Impartial trial procedure. Plaintiff is attempting to avoid or avert the trial process and procedures by asking this court for an order of Summary Judgment thus in violation of defendants Due Process Rights.

For all of the above mentioned facts defendant respectful request that this court deny plaintiff Motion for Summary Judgment.

PERSONAL GUARANTY

In consideration of Secured Party entering into the above Security Agreement (the "Agreement"), the undersigned (the "Guarantor"), jointly and severally with any other guarantors, personally and unconditionally guarantees to Secured Party the prompt payment and performance in full, when due, of all Debtor's obligations under the Agreement including, without limitation, every loan payment and the accelerated balance of payments if demanded by Secured Party. Secured Party shall not be required to proceed against Debtor or the Collateral or to enforce any other remedy before proceeding against the Guarantor. The Guarantor agrees to pay all attorneys' fees and other expenses incurred by Secured Party by reason of any default of Debtor or in enforcing the Agreement or this Guaranty. The Guarantor waives notice of acceptance hereof and all other notices or demands of any kind to which the Guarantor may be entitled and consents to the granting of extensions of time to Debtor and other obligors and guarantors for payment or performance and to any other amendments or adjustments in the terms of the Agreement. No payment under this Guaranty will entitle the Guarantor, by subrogation or otherwise, to any payment from the Debtor or out of the property or other assets of the Debtor. Secured Party does not have to sue Debtor or recover on the Collateral before commencing proceedings against the Guarantor and this Guaranty is a separate distinct contractual obligation of the Guarantor. Secured Party's loss of any right to the Collateral will not affect the Guarantor's obligation to pay Secured Party and the Guarantor subordinates any rights of subrogation against Debtor to all Obligations of Debtor to Secured Party hereunder. The Guarantor will reimburse Secured Party for all of the expenses incurred in enforcing any of Secured Party's rights against the Debtor or the Guarantor including attorneys' fees and costs. This Guaranty shall bind the heirs, administrators, representatives, successors and assigns of the Guarantor and may be enforced by or for the benefit of any assignee or successor of Secured Party. This Guaranty shall be governed by the laws of the State of California and the Guarantor consents with respect to this Guaranty and its enforcement to the same California courts' jurisdiction and venue to which Debtor consented under Section 17 of the Agreement. The Guarantor has executed this Guaranty effective as of the date indicated below. If more than one Guarantor, each shall have joint and several liability under this Guaranty and references to Guarantor shall be deemed a reference to each. THE UNDERSIGNED WAIVES TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THE AGREEMENT AND THIS GUARANTY.

ADMIT

TO: Ryan Transport LLC & Ryan Antonio Burgess, PRO SE DEFENDANT:

Pursuant to Rules 26 and 36 of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure and Rule 3(b) of the Circuit Court Arbitration Rules, Plaintiff hereby propounds and serves the following requests to admit upon Defendants, to be answered separately, in writing and under oath, within thirty (30) days from the date of service hereof or be deemed admitted.

1. Admit that on or about September 22, 2021, Defendant Ryan Antonio Burgess, as signatory for Ryan Transport LLC signed a Commercial Security Agreement, Certificate of Incumbency and Authority, Authorization Agreement for Automatic Withdrawal from Account, Electronic Record and Signature Disclosure, and North Mill Credit Insurance Requirements Defendant ("Contract" hereinafter).
2. Admit that pursuant to the Contract referred to above, Defendants utilized the credit extended by Plaintiff.
3. Admit that Defendants promised to pay the amounts advanced under the agreement and are in default under the terms of the Contract with a balance of $71,857.98.
4. Admit that you entered this Contract freely and without coercion.
5. Admit that you had the ability to review the Contract prior to signing the Contract.
6. Admit that you were in no way defrauded in the formation or execution of the Contract.
7. Admit that you have no evidence that you were defrauded by the lender who advanced the funds and allowed you to make these purchases under the Contract.
8. Admit that the terms of the agreement were not unconscionable.
9. Admit that there was no lack of diligence on behalf of the Plaintiff.
10. Admit that Plaintiff made no false representations.
11. Admit that Defendants did not detrimentally rely on any facts which Plaintiff concealed.

12. Admit that Plaintiff was not guilty of any fraud, deceit, unconscionability, or bad faith directly related to this matter.
13. Admit that Plaintiff mitigated damages.
14. Admit that Plaintiff's claims are not barred by the statute of limitations.
15. Admit that Defendants were not harassed for the debt in violation of the law.
16. Admit that Defendants were properly served.
17. Admit that Defendants' debt was not discharged in bankruptcy.
18. Admit that Plaintiff did not misrepresent any facts to Defendants.
19. Admit that the contract was not vague or ambiguous.
20. Admit that Defendants had a meaningful choice to decide whether to enter into the contract or to not enter into the contract.
21. Admit that none of the terms of the contract were hidden.
22. Admit that all terms of the contract were fair and equitable.
23. Admit that under the Contract you owe unto the Plaintiff Seventy-One Thousand Eight Hundred Fifty-Seven and 98/100 ($71,857.98) Dollars, plus interest, costs, and attorney's fees.

DEFENDANT RESPONSE TO PLAINTIFF AFFIDAVIT

Plaintiff filed an Affidavit on March 14, 2025 stating to this court that plaintiff served on defendant the following, Plaintiffs first set of Interrogatories, plaintiffs first request to admit and Plaintiffs first request for production via US Mail and that the deadline to respond was March 10, 2025.

Plaintiff did Not serve those documents to defendant properly infact defendant does not recall receiving those documents.

Defendant did and does Not admit to anything that plaintiff sent and or request.

Defendant has maintained that he is challenging this case and is hopeful for the dismissal of this case so there is no way that defendant would not respond or admit to anything that plaintiff alleges.

Defendant request that this court not allow plaintiff to rely upon Rule 36 of the South Carolina Rules of Civil procedures to say defendant non response is deemed admitted. Defendant believes that Plaintiff is attempting to use unlawful legal tactics to win this case that he knows defendant is seeking a jury trail in.

Plaintiff filed an Affidavit on March 21, 2025.
Every single statement in the Affidavit made by Rachel Moaddab of CBL Services, LLC are certainly Hearsay, inadmissible and should not be relied upon by this Court.

As to statements 1 thru 15

1) Hearsay, 2). Hearsay 3) Hearsay 4)

Hearsay 5). Hearsay 6). Hearsay 7). Hearsay 8). Hearsay 9).Hearsay 10). Hearsay 11). Hearsay 12). Hearsay 13). Hearsay 14). Hearsay 15). Hearsay 16).Hearsay 15).Hearsay.

Defendant Ryan Antonio Burgess ask this court to not grant Plaintiffs wishes in this Affidavit because Rachel Moaddab of CBL Services, LLC does not have Any Personal Direct knowledge of any agreement between Defendant Ryan Antonio Burgess and North Mill Credit Trust.

Infact, She Rachel Moaddab stated in the Affidavit North Mill Equipment Finance sold the Agreement to Tribute Capital Partners LLC Who then Sold the agreement to CBL Services LLC, whom chose to hire Crawford Von & Keller law firm to bring this case to court.

The Plaintiff specifically stated that the only knowledge she has is through the review of business records. Records that wasn't even received directly from the original creditor but, from a Debt collector that purchased the agreement from the original creditor.

There's a reason why The Original Creditor North Mill Credit Trust, and Tribute Capital LLC did not bring this matter to this court. I believe that reason is because they knew they didn't have a case. Plaintiff has aggressively filed a frivolous Case Against Defendant Ryan Antonio Burgess asking this court for a judgment against Defendant. Plaintiff is not entitled to a judgment against Defendant Ryan Antonio Burgess and ask to court Respectful to not grant such Motion in favor of Plaintiff.

C/A No. 2024-CP-21-01953

ORDER DENYING DEFENDANT'S MOTION TO DISMISS

This matter comes before me upon Motion of the Defendant Pro se, pursuant to Rule 12 of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, seeking an Order Dismissing the Plaintiff's Complaint with prejudice. This is a collection matter.

On December 13, 2024, Defendant filed and served its Motion to Dismiss. The hearing on this matter was held before me on January 28, 2025 at the Florence County Courthouse. Present and participating in the hearing was Jason M. Hunter of the law firm Crawford & von Keller, LLC for the Plaintiff. The Defendant appeared Pro se.

Upon consideration of the motion and the applicable law, the Court hereby DENIES the motion for the following reasons:

1. Defendant Ryan Antonio Burgess asserted at the hearing of this Motion that the dissolution and dismissal of prior Co-Defendant Ryan Transport, LLC should absolve him personally as to the debt being pursued by the Plaintiff in the instant case.

2. In its Complaint, Plaintiff asserts that Defendant Ryan Antonio Burgess executed a Personal Guaranty as to the subject debt. The Court explained to the Defendant at hearing that a Guaranty would allow Plaintiff to continue to pursue its rights under the subject contract against him personally. As such, neither the dissolution or dismissal of prior Co-Defendant Ryan Transport, LLC are grounds for dismissal of the instant case.

3. Defendant further argued that service upon him was insufficient, and that said insufficiency of service of process is reason to dismiss the instant case.

4. The Court notes that Defendant Ryan Antonio Burgess has appeared in this matter by the filing of a responsive Answer to the Plaintiff's Complaint, and also through the filing of this Motion to Dismiss. A "[v]oluntary appearance by [a] defendant is equivalent to personal service.” Rule 4(d) South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure. As such, Defendant’s voluntary appearance in the instant case obviates any argument that service of process was insufficient.

WHEREFORE, for the foregoing reasons, the Court finds that the dismissal of a co-defendant in this matter is not grounds for a dismissal of this case. Further, the Court finds that Defendant’s voluntary appearance in this case provides it with personal jurisdiction over the Defendant. Accordingly, the Defendant's Motion to Dismiss is hereby DENIED.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED!

1. The first part of the report is a general introduction to the project. It describes the purpose of the study, the objectives, and the scope of the work. It also provides a brief overview of the methodology used in the study.

2. The second part of the report is a detailed description of the data collection process. It explains how the data was collected, the sources of the data, and the methods used to ensure the accuracy and reliability of the data.

3. The third part of the report is a detailed description of the data analysis process. It explains how the data was analyzed, the statistical methods used, and the results of the analysis.

4. The fourth part of the report is a conclusion and summary of the findings. It discusses the implications of the results and provides recommendations for future research.

The purpose of this study is to investigate the relationship between the independent variable and the dependent variable. The objectives of the study are to determine the nature and extent of the relationship, to identify the factors that influence the relationship, and to develop a model that can be used to predict the outcome of the relationship.

The data for this study was collected from a sample of 100 individuals. The data was collected using a survey instrument that was designed to measure the independent variable and the dependent variable. The survey instrument was administered to the sample using a random sampling method.

The data was analyzed using a series of statistical tests. The first test was a bivariate correlation analysis, which was used to determine the strength and direction of the relationship between the independent variable and the dependent variable. The second test was a multiple regression analysis, which was used to determine the relative importance of the independent variable and the other variables in the model.

The results of the analysis indicate that there is a positive relationship between the independent variable and the dependent variable. The results also indicate that the independent variable is a significant predictor of the dependent variable.

The conclusion of the study is that there is a positive relationship between the independent variable and the dependent variable. The results of the study have implications for the understanding of the relationship between the independent variable and the dependent variable.
