SC Court of Appeals

Dear Ms. Green:

We received your letter dated May 17, 2026, stating you will not order the transcript. However, pursuant to Rule 207(a)(1) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules, unless the parties otherwise agree in writing, you, as the appellant in this appeal, must order a transcript of the entire proceedings below. Therefore, within ten (10) days from the date of this letter, you must provide proof of having ordered the transcript from the court reporter or this appeal will be dismissed.

Additionally, we received your motion for extension of time to serve and file your initial brief and designation of matter dated May 14, 2026. This motion is premature because your initial brief is not due until thirty days after you receive the transcript. Accordingly, this Court declines to consider your motion for extension of time to serve and file your initial brief and designation of matter. The Court will take no further action on the motion.

Very truly yours,

Jasmine D. Smith, Deputy
CLERK
