RE: Garvin v. State of South Carolina and Asst. Solicitor, James E. Hunter,
Appellate Case No.: 2026-001039, Seeking to Proceed on the Record,
Consisting of the Pleadings and Orders Due to the Cost to Transcribe Transcripts

Dear Hon. Clerk Kitching:

My Daughter, LeNia Garvin, has informed me that June 16, 2026, she received an e-mail from a Jessica Antonucci of Legal Eagle, who the Court Administration has assigned to transcribe the two motion hearings dated October 27, 2025 and March 23, 2026, with a quote. To fully transcribe the two motion hearings it is going to cost me approximately $238.00.

Appellant is proceeding as pro-se and is incarcerated and has not yet received a ruling on his informia pauperis motion. Appellant requests that the Court of Appeals allows me to proceed on the record as it exists, consisting of the pleadings and Orders. Appellant states that he can not afford to pay the $238.00, for the two motion hearings to be transcribed, for which I do not have.

Dated: June 22, 2026

Respectfully,

John Garvin, # 355509, Pro-se
