Re: Shanda Tate v. The Grove Apartments
Appellate Case No. 2026-001070

Dear Ms. Tate:

Upon reviewing your appellant's initial brief, the following deficiencies have been noted under the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), and each deficiency must be corrected within ten (10) days of the date of this letter or this matter will be dismissed:

- The caption does not comply with Rule 267(a), SCACR. Specifically, the caption must match exactly with the one given below:

Shanda Tate, Appellant,

v.

The Grove Apartments, Respondent.

- The initial brief is not accompanied by a designation of matter to be included in the record on appeal. The attachments provided with your initial brief cannot be considered as part of your initial brief. If you wish for these attachments to be included in the record on appeal, you must list them in your designation of matter.

- You must provide the Court with the date that you received the transcript to allow for the appropriate briefing deadlines to be set.
- The initial brief is improperly formatted. Specifically, you must number each page of your initial brief.

Very truly yours,
