

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Armando Despaigne Zulveta, Appellant,

v.

Augusta Lawn Care of Greenville, LLC, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2025-001480

ORDER

After careful consideration of Appellant's motion to reinstate, which we construe as a petition for rehearing, the Court is unable to discover that any material fact or principle of law has been either overlooked or disregarded, and hence, there is no basis for granting a rehearing. Accordingly, the petition for rehearing is denied.¹

¹ On December 23, 2025, the court denied Appellant's motion to proceed in forma pauperis. On January 13, 2026, Appellant filed a petition for rehearing of this Court's order denying Appellant's motion to proceed in forma pauperis. In a January 14, 2026 letter, the court notified Appellant that "[t]his Court will not entertain petitions for rehearing on a motion unless the action of this Court on the motion has the effect of dismissing or finally deciding the appeal pursuant to Rule 221(c) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules. Therefore, no further action will be taken on your petition for rehearing." On June 18, 2026, Appellant filed an additional motion to proceed in forma pauperis—which we construe as a second petition for rehearing on this court's order denying Appellant's motion to proceed in forma pauperis. For the same reasons stated in the January 14, 2026 letter, this court declines to consider Appellant's June 18, 2026 motion.
