RE: Daydrian Rouse, 342518, v. State of South Carolina; 2011-CP-40- 1921;
Appellate Case No. 2013-001269

Dear Mr. Shearouse:

I have finally received the MAIT report we were missing from the discovery from the Fifth Circuit Solicitor's Office in the above referenced matter. I now have all the materials necessary for the appendix for this PCR appeal. In my previous extension request filed on September 5, 2013, I advised the Court that upon receipt of these missing materials I would file my Petition for Writ of Certiorari within 15 days. At that time I had no idea it would take this long to get this missing document. The fifteen day deadline I originally requested would make this petition due on December 25, 2013. My office will be closed from Friday, December 20, 2013 through Sunday, January 5, 2014. There are several State holidays during that time period as well. I will be working a good bit during that time period, but I will have no support staff here to assist me. I now respectfully request a 30 day extension in which to file my Petition for Writ of Certiorari. That would make my Petition due for filing on or before January 24, 2014. Thank you very much for your assistance. Merry Christmas! I remain,

Sincerely yours,
