Re: Marshall Miller v. State of South Carolina

Dear Mr. Compton:

Pursuant to the Supreme Court's order of December 16, 2013, you have been reappointed to represent Mr. Miller. If you need the transcript of record and supporting documents in the above case, please advise.

Our office will be associated with you in connection with this appeal for costs of printing and binding only, up to a maximum cost of ten (.10) cents per page and $3.25 per volume for binding. Reimbursement for printing will only be for the quantity of documents required for this agency. You will be solely responsible for all aspects of the appeal, including printing and filing. However, this Office will obtain and furnish all necessary transcripts without cost to you or your client.

I need to stress that this Office cannot reimburse you for costs of transcripts which you order on your own. In order for the state to bear the costs of the transcripts, these must be ordered through the Office of Appellate Defense, and not by private counsel.

Your case must be registered at www.sccid.sc.gov. In order to receive reimbursement for printing and binding costs, you must submit an electronic voucher; the Order of Appointment or a copy of the letter from Division of Appellate Defense approving you to be associated as counsel; a copy of this letter as authorization for reimbursement from the Division of Appellate Defense; and the original paid receipt for the cost of printing and binding. Payment will be made only to the attorney of record. Payment cannot be made directly to the vendor or supplier.

If you have any questions concerning printing, please contact me at the number listed above. If you have any questions about payment or costs, please contact Jean Tinder at 803-734-1343.

Sincerely,

Pamela C. McKay
Legal Assistant
