Dear Clerk of Court:

I am Cedric Javus Browne, appearing pro se. I am filing an emergency package for the appeal of Horry County Master-in-Equity Case No. 2025-CP-26-00500, involving the foreclosure of my primary residence at 633 Notting Hill Court, Conway, South Carolina 29526.

A public auction sale of my home is scheduled for August 3, 2026 — twenty days from today. Because the judgment directs the sale of real property, it is excepted from the automatic stay under Rule 241(b)(4), SCACR, and S.C. Code Ann. § 18-9-170. A writ of supersedeas under Rule 241(c), SCACR is therefore the only vehicle available to preserve the status quo pending appeal. Without intervention from this Court before August 3, 2026, my home will be sold, my appeal will be rendered moot, and I will have no meaningful remedy.

The Master-in-Equity's Form 4 Order denying my post-judgment motions is internally contradictory on its face: the same court's April 21, 2026 Order set aside my default "based upon lack of actual service," yet the June 29, 2026 Form 4 Order calls me "in default" and denies relief under a "good cause" standard that has no application to a Rule 59(e) or Rule 60(b) motion challenging a judgment entered after a full merits hearing. I raised lack of personal jurisdiction and moved to dismiss under Rule 12(b)(2), (4), (5), SCRCF in my Answer, filed and served with a sworn notarized affidavit — none of which was ever ruled on by the Master on the merits. I am also filing a Motion to Proceed In Forma Pauperis contemporaneously with the Petition, as I am currently unemployed with no significant assets beyond the encumbered residence at issue.

I have attached the following documents, each as a separate PDF:

1. Cover Letter to Clerk of Court
2. Index to Filing Package
3. Notice of Appeal (file-stamped by Horry County Clerk of Court on July 14, 2026), with Certificate of Service on opposing counsel
4. Motion to Proceed In Forma Pauperis and Supporting Financial Affidavit (sworn and notarized)
5. Emergency Petition for Writ of Supersedeas (verified and notarized)
6. Affidavit of Cedric Javus Browne in Support of Emergency Petition (sworn and notarized), with Exhibit A (email chain, April 9 through May 13, 2026)
7. Certified copy of Master's Report and Order of Foreclosure and Sale (entered April 21, 2026)

8. Certified copy of Form 4 Order Denying Motions (signed June 26, 2026; electronically entered June 29, 2026)

Opposing counsel, Mark A. Nappier, Esq. of Joye, Nappier, Risher & Hardin, LLC, has been served with a complete copy of this filing on today's date.

Given the sale date of August 3, 2026, I respectfully request that this filing be brought to the attention of the appropriate judge or justice as promptly as the Court's procedures permit. I am reachable by phone at (843)796-8386 and by email at this address plainjane9955@gmail.com at any time to answer any questions or provide additional information. I have separately requested in my Cover Letter that the Court serve all orders and correspondence on me by email at this address and by first-class mail at 633 Notting Hill Court, Conway, South Carolina 29526. I Have included an Index in case this e-mail does not sequence the enclosures.

Thank you for your assistance.

Respectfully,

Cedric Javus Browne
