STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA IN THE COURT OF APPEALS Case No: 26-CP-23-03935

Natasha Foster, Applellant/Respondent v. Vasilisa Kuzik, Respondent-Landlord.

MOTION FOR WRIT OF SUPERSEDEAS AND EMERGENCY STAY OF EJECTMENT PLEADING PURSUANT TO RULE 241, SCACR The Appellant, Natasha Foster, acting pro se, respectfully moves this Honorable Court pursuant to Rule 241 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules for a Writ of Supersedeas and an Emergency Stay of the Writ of Ejectment / Set-Out date currently scheduled against the property located at 104 Royal Pine way, Greer S.C. 29650. In support of this Motion, Appellant shows the Court the following: 1. JURISDICTION & PROCEDURAL HISTORY Appellant has timely filed an appeal to the South Carolina Court of Appeals regarding a landlord-tenant dispute originating from the Lower Court. A Writ of Ejectment has been issued based upon a prior February filing that Appellant contends was fully satisfied and contractually resolved. Appellant faces an imminent set-out date and will suffer immediate, irreparable harm through homelessness if this Court does not intervene to preserve the status quo pending appeal. 2. GROUNDS FOR APPEAL AND MERITORIOUS DEFENSES Appellant possesses a substantial likelihood of success on the merits based on severe, documented financial irregularities and predatory actions by the Respondent-Landlord, including but not limited to: a. Breach of Contract & Lack of Account Accounting: Respondent claims a balance due of $9,000 to $10,000, entirely disregarding the monthly rent payments reliably paid by Appellant throughout this calendar year. b. Unconscionable and Illegal Fees: Respondent has routinely demanded and collected exorbitant, unauthorized late fees exceeding $600 per month without providing an itemized ledger, despite repeated written requests from Appellant. c. Bad Faith Enforcement of an Extinguished Writ: The underlying writ currently being executed stems from a January rental shortfall caused by temporary job loss, an obligation Appellant fully fulfilled in the amount of $2,200. Respondent explicitly agreed the matter was resolved, but is now weaponizing the old writ as a coercive tool to extort an unverified $10,000 balance. 3. BALANCING OF EQUITIES & IRREPARABLE HARM If a stay is not granted, Appellant will be forcibly removed from a residence occupied for six (6) years based on unverified, fraudulent accounting. Conversely, the Respondent will suffer no prejudice or financial harm, as Appellant intends to fully comply with S.C. Code § 27-40-790 by executing an undertaking to pay the standard, ongoing monthly rental obligations directly to the Court during the pendency of this appeal. Lower court will no longer advised Appellant after appeal was filed with this court. 24 hour notice to vacate has been placed on door with a set-out for July 22nd, 2026.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF WHEREFORE, Appellant respectfully requests that this Court: a. Issue an Emergency Stay of the execution of the Writ of Ejectment to prevent a premature set-out; b. Grant a Writ of Supersedeas staying all lower court enforcement pending a final determination of this appeal; and c. Establish the required rental undertaking amount to be paid into the Court pending the outcome. Dated: July 21, 2026

Respectfully submitted,

Natasha

MOTION

I am writing to formally submit a Motion to Stay in regard to the ongoing case between myself and landlord vasilis kuzik. I have been attemping to pay the bond required by court since 7/5/2026. Despite my efforts to fullfil this obligation, my landlord has told the court that my bond has not been met. I have made Several attempts to complete payment and have evidence OF these communictions. I have been actively trying to resovle the issue of the bond in which vasilisa does not Comply. For those reasons, I respectfully request that the court grant my motion to stay to resolve this matter in which I would Prefer to start Paying through the court to prevent this again. Thank You for Your attention to this request.

No . For last year or any previous years you don't own anything. It's been covered with the money I received from you this year

Also this year
- January covered
-February still have a balance of $470.
- March unpaid
-April unpaid
-May unpaid
-June unpaid

I'm still keeping the deposit.

That's not what the ledger states that the agency tried to understand and explain and this is why the agency was confused and wanted the courts to look at it. Can you send me the ledger? I know April is what they are paying but May was paid feb was paid and Jan was paid

That's what I was DOING. But Lisa I do not have 10,000 to pay you by June 9th. You went to the court to have me out so now it's legal matters. Now I have to fight legally as well. When it did not have to be this way. No one has just 10,000 laying around to give anybody in this day and time. And no one can make sense of it so hopefully the court can I don't know what else to do at this point but let the court handle it and hold my money bc I was paying you and you never canceled court like I did.

If you were making payments like you said why your balance is so high? You skipped payments a lot of them too. I ve been asking you nicely- pls make your payment, you ignored. You didn't hear me. In the meantime the balance was growing. Do you understand that now the bank wants to take this house for non payment ?

According to your landlord she had made an error. That you have never paid the full amount of rent with the late fee to the balance is late fees but also unpaid rent. She said and it is on the ledger that the $2200 was applied to December and past rent so you now owe for January, February, March and the late fees. The late fees are almost $480 to $580 a month.

YES, she was trying to add all your late fee since 2021 which I told her she cannot do. But when you gave her $2200 in February, she take that and applied it to the back rent and your deposit so it left a $1000 added to January's rent.

If it's a little over 7 grand then that makes me correct on what I stated so how it is now 10 grand. Let the court figure it out I guess whenever they schedule another hearing

I said despite late fees. But with them over the years it became closer to 10K

Wich will pass the 10K if you don't make June payment on time again

Especially if you know how mortgage works you should know better.
By the way this mortgage is 30 years long

You would've taken my monies and I had a sat out on June 9th, had I not went to the bigger courts myself to fight against that order

- January covered
-February still have a balance of $470.
- March unpaid
-April unpaid
-May unpaid
-June unpaid

You said in this text January is covered. But then you just said that you're still waiting on Jan rent. Nothing makes sense to me. I'm trying to be fair, stay in my house, pay my rent but I'm as well as everyone else is confused by all this and can't make sense of it. Even the all the fees is excessive. If I file with the court we both have to clear our schedules and be in court. I have to drop my son off at college on Sunday but I have canceled birthday plans and all bc I'm prepared if we have to take this to higher up if you feel like that's what we need to do to get a judge to settle all this.

" Also this year
- January covered
-February still have a balance of $470.
- March unpaid
-April unpaid
-May unpaid
-June unpaid"
I said this only because I used the money you gave me to cover late fees.
But if we are not covering the late fees at this point (which we still have to).
Than I only received February and April's payments for this year.

And other little money you gave me ... some of the late fees.

According to your landlord she had made an error. That you have never paid the full amount of rent with the late fee to the balance is late fees but also unpaid rent. She said and it is on the ledger that the $2200 was applied to December and past rent so you now owe for January, February, March and the late fees. The late fees are almost $480 to $580 a month.

And when you spoke to her, this is the logical outco...

Ethel Young Mar 17

to me

YES, she was trying to add all your late fee since 2021 which I told her she cannot do. But when you gave her $2200 in February, she take that and applied it to the back rent and your deposit so it left a $1000 added to January's rent.

Still not quite understanding. Jan was paid. I should've only owe Feb and March

If it's a little over 7 grand then that makes me correct on what I stated so how it is now 10 grand. Let the court figure it out I guess whenever they schedule another hearing

I said despite late fees. But with them over the years it became closer to 10K

Wich will pass the 10K if you don't make June payment on time again

Especially if you know how mortgage works you should know better.
By the way this mortgage is 30 years long

You would've taken my monies and I had a sat out on June 9th, had I not went to the bigger courts myself to fight against that order

- January covered
-February still have a balance of $470.
- March unpaid
-April unpaid
-May unpaid

L

You said in this text January is covered. But then you just said that you're still waiting on Jan rent. Nothing makes sense to me. I'm trying to be fair, stay in my house, pay my rent but I'm as well as everyone else is confused by all this and can't make sense of it. Even the all the fees is excessive. If I file with the court we both have to clear our schedules and be in court. I have to drop my son off at college on Sunday but I have canceled birthday plans and all bc I'm prepared if we have to take this to higher up if you feel like that's what we need to do to get a judge to settle all this.

" Also this year
- January covered
-February still have a balance of $470.
- March unpaid
-April unpaid
-May unpaid
-June unpaid"
I said this only because I used the money you gave me to cover late fees.
But if we are not covering the late fees at this point (which we still have to).
Than I only received February and April's payments for this year.

And other little money you gave me ... some of the late fees.

Correction: "Just wanted to let you know that every penny you gave me this year went to cover your previous unpaid months balances.
With that I was able to cover the rest of year 2025 (the balance was $2865) covered now. So now you don't own nothing for last year.
For this year 2025 only a month of January is covered as well. And some February balance. " should be read as follow-
Just wanted to let you know the rest every penny you gave me this year went to cover your previous unpaid months balances.

For this year 2026 only a month of January is covered as well. And some February balance.

This is why I was telling you - the mortgage company doesn't want to wait any longer for payments. And they want to take an action now.

Pls respond ASAP, Natasha. It's very important

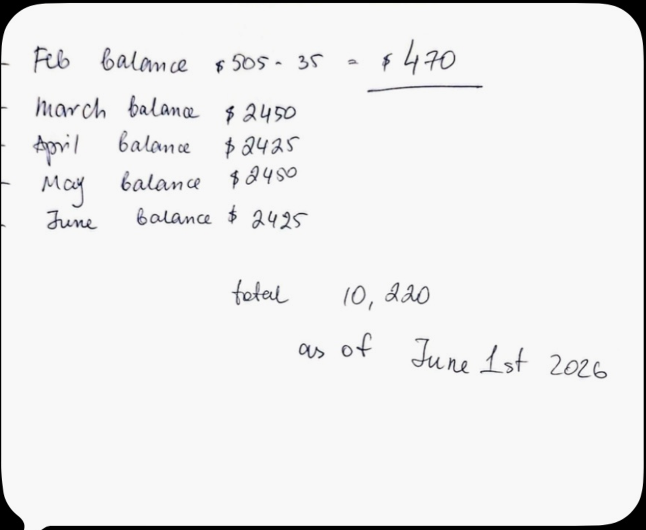
When is the rest coming?

Just wanted to let you know the rest every penny you gave me this year went to cover your previous unpaid months balances.
With that I was able to cover the rest of year 2025 (the balance was $2865) covered now. So now you don't own nothing for last year.
For this year 2025 only a month of January is covered as well. And some February balance.

For a conclusion here is what is your balance for the rest of this year. $10, 220



Feb balance $505 - 35 = $470
March balance $2450
April balance $2425
May balance $2480
June balance $2425

total 10,220

as of June 1st 2026

Well the court just called and stated you sche for me a set out June 9th

My kids a e that is so evil. Glad the courts have decency to call me. Last time those ppl came it upset my elderly neighbors. You could've just asked me to voluntarily move.

I asked the court lady to call you today. So

You never dropped the writ after I canceled the hearing like we agreed. I'm going to higher up court. They advised me on what to do. If you want to handle in court that's fine.

I canceled that hearing for you, not me

I canceled that last hearing for you, not me when the gov agency officials at share told me not to trust you. I did anyway. They were right. So. I will just wait on the court hearing. No need in me sending all this money just to be put out a house I've pretty much have paid off. Sorry I have to do what's best for me and my kids we've been through enough already. And I don't know what to trust anymore.

Pls pay your balance and stay as much as you want. Mortgage company is asking for money and they can't wait any longer
