Greenville SC 29601

ORDER TO APPEAL

Appellant now comes before this court to appeal verbal decisions made during an hearing to "relieve counsel" on June 19th, 2026. Appellant came into the possession of this order via US Postal Service's on or about June 26, 2026.

APPEALED DECISIONS

During the hearing and after appellant was granted pro-se, he immediately moved in open court by verbal statement or request to "dismiss for lack of evidence". Appellant moved to Quash the said indictments due to the "case being a solely circumstantial case" and there is no evidence that ~~██████████~~ inculcate's the appellant, and the medical examiner determined ~~the~~ manner of death as, not a homicide.

The judge asked the states prosecutor "whats going on with this case" and the prosecutor replied "well your honor, we are waiting on forensics."

The appellant repeatedly stated "how can you sit there and allow this case to move forward when Rule 5 and Brady is not being followed"; "this case is improper before the court"; and "none of the indictments have been TRUE Bill'd by a constituted Grand Jury".

Therefore the appellant appeals the decision not to adhere to the appellants verbal motion to the court to "Quash the said indictments".

NARRATIVE

On 6-19-24 at approx. 11:20 AM in the Greenville County Courthouse for a "Motion to relieve as counsel" with Judge R. Lawton McIntosh presiding (RLM).

During this hearing it was stated by William Yarborough (YG) among other words "Mr. Reeves has a great case to win"; "this case is solely based on circumstantial evidence"; "there are major discrepancies with the coroners office"; and "there is more evidence the State has come forward with that has not been presented to Reeves". (RLM) asked the solicitor, over the case, (Douglas Richardson (DR)) "what's going on with this case" and (DR) replied, "Well your honor we are still waiting on forensics"; among other excuses. Reeves looked at (DR) baffled and confused, as to, where was due process, that he (Reeves) has been seized and detained and accused for murdering his friend on theories and beliefs since (Sept 18th, 2024). Furthermore the Medical Examiners determination of her manner of death as "undetermined" and not a homicide or murder.

(RLM) begins to ask Reeves questions for his Pro-se rights. Once Reeves regained his rights to be pro-se Reeves thanked (RLM) and immediately moved in open court to "dismiss the indictments for lack of evidence." (RLM) told Reeves "we are not here today for that." Reeves asked (RLM) among other words "none of the charges are indicted by a constituted Grand Jury" after a short pause and no rebuttal by (DR), Reeves stated "this case is improper before this court"; "how are you (RLM) allowing this case to move forward"; and "the state (DR) is not complying with Rule 5 and Brady in the new Order by C.J. John W. Kittredge." (RLM) continued stonewalling Reeves at every angle and ignoring his (Reeves) concerns. Reeves further stated "I have not been afforded one pretrial setting to establish probable cause, but nothing from (RLM). P-2
