Re: Brock, Stephen v. Town of Mt. Pleasant
Appellate Case No. 2012-208787

Dear Counsel:

We have received your correspondence dated December 11, 2013. Please be advised that pursuant to Rule 264, SCACR, the trial attorney is deemed to be the attorney of record on appeal until relieved by the Court. If you do not want to be considered co-counsel for the respondent, then you must petition this Court to be relieved as counsel. Otherwise, you will continue to be considered counsel for the respondent and will be copied on all correspondence concerning this case. If an order has been issued in the lower court showing that you have been relieved as counsel, we will accept a copy of the order in lieu of a motion.

You are further advised that the motion to substitute/relieve counsel must be copied on the respondent, Town of Mount Pleasant, and must be in compliance with Rules 240 and 264 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules.

Very truly yours,

V. Claire Allen, Deputy
