RE: Case No 2025-002534, Adam Weitenhagen vs. SCDC...

Dear Ms. Kitchings;

I am sending this letter as a formal request for inquiry into the record of filing with the above referenced case. I am confused as to why I received this letter and request on June 25, 2026 stating that I failed to file the record of appeal. This can't be correct as I filed the Order with the Court as required when filing my notice along with a designation of matter, and served all parties in the appeal including a copy to the ALC.

I received a notice on March 20, 2026 that the Respondents were required to submit the record on appeal and where they failed to do so and that they were allowed to file out of time for that purpose. After such an Order was issued to file all initial briefs as required. On April 15, I filed my brief as Ordered. On April 17, I received the Court's Order granting Respondent's motion for late filing.

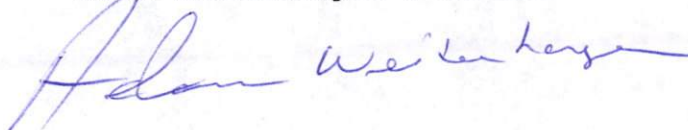

The record of appeal and designation of matter have been served upon the Court. The Order is the Final Disposition and only record in my possession, the Respondent is obligated along with the ALC who was served notice, to submit all grievances filed which would be the entire record, outside of briefing.

In an abundance of caution I am requesting a stay until the matter can be resolved as to why the record of proceedings is not before the Court as submitted. This is an appeal from the ALC, as such the Record on Appeal is to be submitted through Final Order and all copies of the evidence, i.e. grievances and briefs in that matter, are within the possession of the ALC and the Respondents.

If I am in error please advise me as to what it is that you are saying as it relates to the record that is not been submitted. I hope this can be corrected and thank you for your assistance in this matter.

Respectfully Submitted
