

RECEIVED

Jul 28 2026

Gmail

SC Court of Appeals

Francine Mack <francinemack23@gmail.com>

Case#2026-001300/Name:Lakenya Markita Mack

Francine Mack <francinemack23@gmail.com>

Tue, Jul 28 at 2:15 PM

To: <ctappfilings@sccourts.or>

Subject: Case# 2026.001300
Name: Lakenya Markita Mack

Enclosed is a copy of the letter I emailed to the 3rd Circuit PD office on Wednesday, June 10, 2026. My daughter's case has two highly viable grounds for an appeal.

1. Defective Plea Colloquy:

The agreement that was explained to myself and my daughter Lakenya Mack by her Attorney Mr. Warren Scott Anderson was supposed to be one count, but the prosecutor read two counts out loud. Because Mr. Anderson failed to object when the state read more charges than agreed upon is a clear conflict of interest.

2. Ineffective Assistance of Counsel:

The fact that Lakenya's public defender threatened her with a 25-year sentence to stop her from filing an appeal is unethical, legally inaccurate, and constitutes a textbook claim of Ineffective Assistance.

of Counsel. By her lawyer stating that the judge will get mad and give her

Case # 2026.001300 Name: Lakenya M. Mack
the mandatory 25-years sentence, her public defender did not give her, nor family and friends, sound legal advice, Mr. Anderson actively terrorized her with a fake penalty to avoid doing the appellate paperwork. Lakenya was under extreme duress and fear caused by her lawyer lies. I had to step in and demand that he do his job and file the appeal before the 10-day clock ran out.

Mr. Anderson's threats were spoken over the phone, in person after the hearing inside the lobby at the court house and outside of the court house in the parking lot with witnesses present,

Rule 1.1 (Competence) and Rule 1.3 (Diligence); Mr. Anderson failed to object when the state read two charges instead of the agreed upon single charge. He then actively refused to file Lakenya's requested appeal until he finally on the evening of Friday, June 05, 2026

stating the same words that the judge will be pissed off and he will give my

Case # 2026-001300 Name: Lakenya M. Mack daughter the maximum 25-year sentence instead of 18-years. I told Mr. Anderson that's a chance Lakenya and I are willing to take. After a few minutes of talking back and forth, while he kept trying to convince me not to file the appeal, I demanded that he file the appeal before the final day. Before I could finish my conversation, Mr. Anderson hung the telephone up while I was still talking to him.

Rule 1.4 (Communication): Mr. Anderson provided false legal information regarding Lakenya's appellate rights. He also failed to explain the reason why certain trial errors
were left out of the appeal, stripping Lakenya
of her right to make informed decisions.

Rule 8.4 (Misconduct/Coercion): Mr. Anderson

used deceit and a fabricated, high-stakes threat ("the judge will get piss mad and give her 25-years instead of 18-years") to frightening her away from exercising her constitutional right to appeal.