ORDER REGARDING MOTIONS

SC Court of Appeals

24 AUG 12 PM 12:01
Brice Garrett CDC GUL SC

The Defendant has sent to the Court numerous Motions and letters and the Court felt that it was necessary to address this practice.

Letters to the Court. Letters sent directly to the Court are ex parte communications and are not permissible:

A judge shall accord to every person who has a legal interest in a proceeding, or that person's lawyer, the right to be heard according to law. A judge shall not initiate, permit or consider ex parte communications or consider other communications made to the judge outside the presence of the parties concerning a pending or impending proceeding [except for scheduling or administrative purposes]. South Carolina Rules of Appellate Court, Rule 501, Canon 3 (7). (emphasis added)

The Court cannot consider any such letters from the Defendant or any communications except when all parties are present. All future correspondence will be returned to the Defendant unread.

Future Motions. All future Motions shall be filed with the Clerk's office with a proper caption and in compliance with Rule 4, SCRCrP and shall be heard immediately prior to trial unless otherwise set for a hearing by the Chief Administrative-General Sessions. Further, the Defendant cannot file a "subsequent motion upon the same set of facts" as prohibited by Rule 4(b), SCRCrP.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
