Re: State of South Carolina v. Vernon Jenkins

Appellate Case No. 2026-000693

Request for First Extension

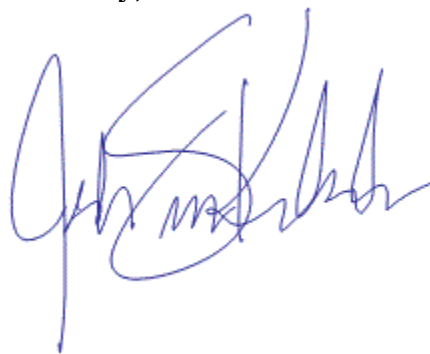

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

The initial brief in this case is due today. I do not believe I will be able to finish the appeal today, based on the complexity of the issues I have identified and the need to consult with my client on several matters before filing. Additionally, I have briefs due in 3 other state and federal appeals in the next 7 days.

I would appreciate you extending the time to file this appeal by 30 days, setting a new deadline of September 3, 2026. This is my first request for an extension and is necessary based on the factors I have described and should not needlessly delay the resolution of this matter.

Please contact me at your convenience if you need any additional information.

Sincerely,

Joshua Snow Kendrick
