Re: Date of Incident: November 20, 2023

Dear Melissa Fulwiler, as Parent and Natural Guardian of David Caraballo:

As you know, the Court granted the Defendants' Motion for Directed Verdict. The Court concluded that the Plaintiffs were unable to prove that the Defendants were negligent. The Court basically ruled that the Plaintiffs cannot prove that the trailer tire's blow-out was caused by any negligence of the Defendants.

Based on the facts of your case we do not see any basis for an appeal therefore our firm will not be representing you on any appeal. Our firm will no longer take any action on your behalf. In South Carolina, you have 30 days to serve a Notice of Appeal after receiving written notice of the Judgment's entry. Under Rule 203 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules, you must serve a written Notice of Appeal on all Respondents within 30 days of receiving written notice of the Judgment's entry. We received the Court's Order and Judgment on June 17, 2026. This means that you have until JULY 17, 2026 to file the Notice of Appeal. If you wish to appeal, you need to seek other legal counsel IMMEDIATELY.

Sincerely,

/s/ Patrick Fraser
