SC Court of Appeals

CORRECTED DESIGNATION OF MATTER AND RECORD

In compliance with Rule 208(b)(1)(C), SCACR, and invoking the inherent equitable jurisdiction of the South Carolina Appellate Court, Appellant respectfully designates the following portions of the Record on Appeal as necessary for the determination of this appeal:

1. Transcripts:

The full transcript of the proceedings held before the Honorable Clifton B. Newman on May 30, 2025 (filed in the Circuit Court on April 25, 2026).

2. Magistrate Court Proceedings:

The Magistrate Court's Return, including all evidence, pleadings, and orders entered in the underlying magistrate case.

3. Circuit Court Proceedings:

The Circuit Court's Form 4 Judgment and final Order of dismissal, including any attachments and exhibits referenced therein.

4. Equitable Filings:

All equitable filings made in the South Carolina Appellate Court, including, but not limited to:

- The Plea of Release;
- The Motion to Remand;
- The Supplemental Lodgment; and
- The Notice of Lis Pendens.

The designated transcript and documents are already contained within the Record on Appeal. No further designation is required at this time. This designation is made in strict accordance with the procedural rules, without waiving any equitable rights, and expressly reserving all equitable claims and defenses.

Respectfully submitted,

By: Samuel Tucker Collins Jr., Grantee
