case status decision filed meaning

A case status of "decision filed" or "decision was mailed" means an official ruling has been made on your application, and the physical notice or result is now being processed or sent to you.

What This Status Means

- Ruling Completed: An officer or judge has finished reviewing your file and made a final choice (such as an approval or a denial).
- Notice Sent: The formal paperwork explaining the decision has been logged and mailed out to your address on file.

Next Steps to Expect

SPECIAL ADMINISTRATOR

To: probate2@yorkcountygov.com

Good morning Judge Roger's, My name is Tanya Murphy. I am the Special Administrator for the sole purpose of obtaining medical records for my deceased mother Deborah Coleman. Since I was appointed on 09/05/2019 I have obtained ALL medical records and have contacted Sled, Police, Solicitors and everyone whom I could to investigate a stolen kidney. Mother's Day is here and it was on my heart to maybe reach out to you because I have significant proof the healthy kidney was taken with NO explanation that makes sense. Will you please look into this matter or point me in the right direction as to why I can't receive the answers I need. The case number at hand is 2019ES4601118. I'd humbly appreciate your advice because I gave my mother my word I would get to the bottom of this matter now her death... Please and Thank You. My prayers are it's under a very intense investigation to leave no stone unturned... But I was still led to reach out to you.

Chester County School District, Defender Services, Inc., and Steve M. Bright, individually and as agent of Defender Services, Inc., Respondents,

Of whom Tanya Murphy is the Appellant.

Appellate Case No. 2021-000102

ORDER

Appellant has filed a motion, which this Court construes as a petition to rehear the dismissal of this appeal. After careful consideration of the petition for rehearing, the Court is unable to discover that any material fact or principle of law has been either overlooked or disregarded, and hence, there is no basis for granting a rehearing. Accordingly, the petition for rehearing is denied.

JACQUIE JONE... 10/10/25 ☆ ...

To: Tanyamurphy33@yahoo.com ✓

Good day Tanya Murphy,

Thank you for contacting the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission ("EEOC"). We are sending this email to you because you told us you are interested in filing a charge of employment discrimination with the EEOC. Unfortunately, due to the lapse of appropriations, we are currently closed, and not available to conduct an interview with you. We will schedule an interview when the government reopens.

We are in receipt of your inquiry that you submitted to the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC). Based on the information you have given us, it appears that your time for filing a charge of job discrimination may soon end. There are strict time limits for filing a charge of employment discrimination. That time limit is generally 300 days from the date you knew or should have known about the harm or negative job action. In some other states, it is 180 days. According to the date provided in your inquiry, your deadline to file a charge is approximately November 12, 2025. For more information about the time limits, please see <http://www.eeoc.gov/employees/timeline.ss.cfm>.

If you would like to file a charge, you may do so by completing and signing the attached Form EA. (If you have already filed
