Re: Sammie Goodwin v. City of Columbia Police Department
Appellate Case No. 2026-001685

Dear Counsel:

This will acknowledge receipt of your client's Notice of Appeal in the above entitled matter. According to Rule 264 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules, the trial attorney is deemed to be the attorney of record on appeal until he/she has been relieved by an order of the Court.

If you choose not to represent Mr. Goodwin in this appeal, this Court requires a copy of an order issued in the lower court showing that you have been relieved as counsel or an original petition to be relieved as counsel, proof of service on opposing counsel and Mr. Goodwin and a fifty dollar ($50) filing fee, pursuant to Rule 240, SCACR.

All parties to this matter are advised that all filings must comply with the requirements of Rule 267 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR). The SCACR are available online at www.sccourts.org/courtreg. Additionally, any filings submitted by counsel admitted in South Carolina must include counsel's bar number.

The attention of the parties is directed to the order relating to the inclusion of personal data identifiers and other sensitive information in documents filed with the Supreme Court of South Carolina and the South Carolina Court of Appeals.

The order can be found at www.sccourts.org/courtOrders/displayOrder.cfm?orderNo=2014-04-15-02. Please note that the responsibility for insuring that information is redacted or sealed as required by this order rests with counsel and the parties. This office will not review filings for redaction or to determine if materials should be sealed.

This is to advise that the title in the above matter has been changed to read as follows:

Sammie Goodwin, Appellant,

v.

City of Columbia Police Department, Respondent.

All future records in this matter should be changed to reflect this title. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact this office.

Very truly yours,

CLERK
