Dear Clerk of Court:

I am writing regarding Robert Jones and Jessica Jones v. Aaron Quinzy, Appellate Case No. 2025-002454.

I wanted to notify the Court that today, August 7, 2026, I completed the corrections identified in the Court's July 23, 2026 deficiency notice.

I have served Respondents' counsel by U.S. Mail as directed by the Court. I have also placed my response to the deficiency notice in the U.S. Mail to the South Carolina Court of Appeals, along with the required $50.00 filing fee by money order and my corrected Certificate of Service.

I understand that the deadline is very close. I had to make the necessary corrections and carefully review the documents to ensure that I complied with the Court's instructions. Everything required to correct the deficiencies has now been completed and mailed today.

I am sending this email simply to notify the Court that the materials and filing fee are in the mail and on their way to the Court, in case the mailed documents are not physically received before the deadline.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Respectfully,

Aaron Quinzy
