Dear Clerk,

I received a letter in the mail with a case number, rules and instructions for payment. I mailed the check last week. What are my next steps in this matter? Will I receive that once payment has been processed or is this something that can be instructed via email? I am doing this appeal on my own and appreciate direction.

Thank you for your assistance.
Sincerely,
Lori Heffner Gibson

Regarding a Notice of Appeal, I served other parties Proof of Service via certified mail on June 18, 2026, within the 30 period from the Administrative Law Court denial motion. I then mailed the Notice of Appeals packet via certified mail on June 26, 2026, within the 10 day period from Proof of Service. I had not received any correspondence since mailing, therefore yesterday afternoon I checked the tracking information and got the notification the package has been at a Processing Center in Columbia since July 4, 2026.

Attached are copies of the documents that were in the package sent via certified mail on June 26, 2026 as well as the carbon copy of the check that I wrote on June 24, 2026 and the USPS tracking information.

Please consider the date of June 26, 2026 as that date is within the timely filing after the Proof of Service was sent to the other parties. Please also let me know how I can pay the $250.00 filing fee since the check is in the packet at the processing center. You can send me an invoice in a reply to this email, mail to the address below or I can pay electronically today. If that is an option, please reply with a link for that electronic payment.

Attachments:

* Notice of Appeals to SC Court of Appeals (in packet)

* Proof of Service notice that was sent to other parties on June 18, 2026 (in packet)

* No Transcript Required notice (in packet)

* Denial of Motion from Administrative Law Court, May 20, 2026 (in packet)

* Letter from Administrative Law Court, June 10, 2026 (in packet)

* Carbon copy of check written on June 24, 2026 for filing fee (actual check is in packet)

* USPS Certified Mail Receipts from June 18, 2026 for Proof of Service and June 26, 2026 for Notice of Appeal and No Transcript Required notice

* Screenshot of Tracking information for packet Mailed to SC Court of Appeals on June 26, 2026

Thank you for your attention, I appreciate all assistance as I am very concerned since my package has not been delivered.

Sincerely,

Lori Heffner Gibson
