RE: Jack Waylon Kuykendall

Dear Madame Clerk Kitchings,

I hope this letter finds you doing well. I am drafting this in response to inquiry about Mr. Kuykendall's transcript. I received notice yesterday via email that the time limit had expired to order the transcript and that I must respond in writing.

I had a contract with the Pickens County Public Defender's Office when I went into private practice, and Mr. Kuykendall was one of my last cases to resolve. After conviction, I timely filed the Notice of Appeal to the listed parties. As of yesterday afternoon, Appellate Defense assured me that they are taking the case, and they will order the transcript.

Thank you for bringing this to my attention. I hope that this letter resolves my involvement with his Appeal.

Sincerely,

Catherine A. Wyse
