

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Bobby Joe Barton, Appellant,

v.

State of South Carolina, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2026-001140

ORDER

After careful consideration of Appellant's "motion requesting to rescind the remittitur and reopen the matter for appellate review at the proper time of proper filing of the notice of appeal," which we construe as a petition for rehearing, the Court is unable to discover that any material fact or principle of law has been either overlooked or disregarded, and hence, there is no basis for granting a rehearing. Accordingly, the petition for rehearing is denied.¹
