Dear Clerk of Court,

Attached please find an Emergency Petition for Writ of Supersedeas and Motion for Temporary Stay pursuant to Rule 241, SCACR.

I am filing this emergency petition because I am facing imminent physical ejectment from my primary residence by the Spartanburg County Sheriff's Office as early as tomorrow morning (Tuesday, August 18, 2026).

Because of the extreme time sensitivity, I respectfully request that this filing packet be routed immediately to the duty judge for consideration of a Temporary Administrative Stay under Rule 241(e) to halt the physical eviction while the court reviews the petition.

The attached PDF includes the following required documents:
1. Emergency Transmittal Notice / Cover Sheet
2. Emergency Petition for Writ of Supersedeas
3. Verification of Petition (Notarized)
4. Exhibit A: Circuit Court Form 4 Order (August 12, 2026)
5. Exhibit B: Record of Lower Court Filings (including the unconsidered $40,331.38 Counterclaim and Affidavit of System Outage)
6. Motion to Proceed In Forma Pauperis
7. Certificate of Service
8. Proposed Temporary Administrative Stay Order (Rule 241(e))

I will be calling your office shortly to confirm receipt and inquire about the emergency routing process. Thank you very much for your immediate assistance with this time-critical matter.

Respectfully,

Evan Clint Rayfield, Appellant Pro Se
