SC Court of Appeals

John B. Williams has moved the court to allow him to withdraw as counsel for Plaintiff, Edwin Rogers, in the above captioned matter.

It appears to the court that there is just cause for granting the motion and that the Plaintiff, Edwin Rodgers, has consented to the requested withdrawal.

It is therefore ORDERED that the motion of John B. Williams to withdraw as counsel for Plaintiff, Edwin Rogers is granted. It is further ordered:

1. Plaintiff, Edwin Rogers, has the burden of keeping the court informed as to where notices, pleadings, and other papers may be served. Service of notice may be made on Plaintiff, Edwin Rogers, at the address of 612 Jing Jing Lane Huger, SC 29450, unless the court is otherwise notified in writing;

2. The case shall be stayed 15 days from the date of this Order to allow Plaintiff, Edwin Rogers to retain other counsel, if they elect to do so;

3. Plaintiff, Edwin Rogers, has the obligation to prepare for hearings and any trial;

5. The clerk of court is instructed to mail a copy of this order to Plaintiff, Edwin Rogers at 612 Jing Jing Lane, Huger, SC 29450.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.
