MOTION AND BRIEF FOR REHEARING OF 8/19/26 ORDER

---

NOW COMES, Appellant Brad Tidik and says unto this Honorable court as follows:

1. The court has omitted error by disregarding Appellants Notice of Appeal that specifically states the statutory provision of "...SC Code § 14-3-330..." Exhibit A

2. This court has completely ignored the statutory and has failed to reference it in its 8/19/26 order claiming that Appellant did not provide a statute when Appellant did provide such and this is reversible error in that this court must grant Appellant In Forma Pauperis.

3. Appellant will again again state the statute for his immediate appeal as relating to the striking of his complaint is S.C. Code Ann. § 14-3-330(2)(c), "strikes out..any part thereof.", and includes the State and Federal Constitutional provisions of Ex Parte Martin, 321 S.C. 533 471 S.E.2d 134 (1995)

WHEREFORE, Appellant has provided a statute as required by the court and as such In Forma Pauperis must be granted.
