

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Amos Mack, Claimant, Appellant,

v.

Don's Car Crushing, Employer, and Business First Insurance Co., Carrier, Respondents.

Appellate Case No. 2025-001178

ORDER

On May 12, 2026, Appellant filed the record on appeal. On May 28, 2026, Appellant filed an amended record on appeal. On June 5, 2026, Respondents filed a motion to strike Appellant's amended record on appeal, arguing it is incomplete because it does not include twelve of the fourteen matters designated by Respondents and included matter that is not properly before the court. On June 12, 2026, Appellant filed a second amended record on appeal.

After careful consideration, we grant Respondents' motion to strike and strike the May 28, 2026 record on appeal. Further, the second amended record on appeal, filed on June 21, 2026 is not accepted as filed. Within ten days of the date of this order, Appellant shall file a third amended record on appeal that includes all of the matter designated by the parties, does not include any matter not presented to the lower court or tribunal, and is properly paginated. See Rule 210(c), SCACR ("The Record on Appeal shall include all matter designated to be included by any party under Rule 209 and shall comply with the requirements of Rule 267. The Record shall not, however, include matter which was not presented to the lower court or tribunal. Matter contained in the Record on Appeal shall be arranged in the following order: the title page, index, orders, judgments, decrees, decisions, pleadings, transcript, charges, and exhibits and other materials or documents. Each page of the Record on Appeal shall be numbered consecutively beginning with the index. Where a portion of a page of the trial transcript, or a page of an exhibit or document, is to be included in the Record on Appeal, the entire page shall be included."). Failure to comply may result in the dismissal of the appeal. The parties final briefs shall be filed within twenty days of the third amended record on appeal.
