Subject: RE: Homes of Hope v. Shasha Rawlinson (2026-000980)

I am not sure why this information was sent to our office, as the documents attached appear to be related to the appeal you filed with the Court of Appeals on April 22, 2026.

Per the Court of Appeals' order, all required parties have completed their respective obligations, with the exception of the action required from you. We have also received the dismissal of the motions you filed with the Court of Appeals.

Based on the current status of the matter, Homes of Hope may proceed with the Writ of Ejectment.

If you have questions regarding the Court of Appeals' order or the status of your case, you may wish to contact the Court directly or seek legal counsel.

Im just receiving this email after searching the documents for the receipt. Who is this person they are advising me to send correspondence to? I'm not understanding why my receipt for the notice of appeal is not in the system for which I paid the money. Can the proof of service or proof of certificate be produced because this is not the correct address as to why I never received this.

Good afternoon,

The writ of ejectment will be placed on hold while the motion is pending. The Court of Appeals has advised that the motion is expected to be heard during the week of June 15. Please check with the Court of Appeals for the exact hearing date and any updates. If the motion is denied, the writ of ejectment will move forward and the eviction will proceed. Thank you.

Good afternoon,

I had to see my lawyer and it's taking longer than expected. I was coming to the office but I needed to know what amounts I needed to bring. Homes of Hope advised me to contact you to bring bond.
