APPELLANTS' MOTION FOR CLARIFICATION AND FOR RELIEF REGARDING THE JUNE 4, 2026 APPEAL BOND ORDER AND JUNE 18, 2026 FILING

Appellants, Josetta Singleton, Jayla Singleton, and Tinarris Williams, proceeding pro se, respectfully move this Court for clarification and appropriate relief concerning the June 4, 2026 Appeal Bond Order and Appellants' June 18, 2026 filing.

In support of this Motion, Appellants state as follows:

I. PROCEDURAL HISTORY

1. On April 17, 2026, Appellants filed a Notice of Appeal from the circuit court's order concerning the underlying eviction matter.
2. On May 1, 2026, this Court remanded the matter to the circuit court for an expedited hearing concerning Appellants' motion to stay and determination of the appeal bond. The Court's August 21, 2026 order confirms this procedural history.
3. The circuit court conducted the appeal-bond hearing on May 26, 2026.
4. The circuit court entered its written Appeal Bond Order on June 4, 2026. That order required Appellants to pay an appeal bond of $3,977.25 and a continuing monthly bond payment of $2,494.50 plus utilities, beginning June 1, 2026.
5. Appellants did not receive the signed written order before June 1. Appellants' sworn affidavit states that they learned of the order on June 5, 2026, after the clerk advised that the signed order had been mailed.
6. After learning of the order, Appellants immediately attempted to comply with the Court's bond requirements.
7. On June 5, 2026, Appellants went to the property management office with funds intended to satisfy the appeal bond. Appellants' June 5 correspondence documented the attempt and explained that they had not previously received the signed order.
8. Appellants thereafter filed an Emergency Motion to Determine Compliance, Accept Tender, and Permit Deposit of Appeal Bond Into Court Registry in the circuit court. That motion specifically requested a determination that Appellants acted in good faith and attempted to comply with the June 4 order.

9. On June 18, 2026, Appellants submitted the June 4 Appeal Bond Order and related materials to this Court. The submission was received by the Court of Appeals on June 18, 2026.
10. The June 18 submission included the June 4 Appeal Bond Order, Appellants' emergency motion concerning compliance, proof of service, and supporting documentation concerning Appellants' attempts to satisfy the bond.

II. THE COURT'S AUGUST 21, 2026 ORDER

11. On August 21, 2026, this Court entered an Order denying Appellants' June 30 and July 7 motions to supplement the record.
12. The Court stated that although the June 4, 2026 Appeal Bond Order had been provided to the Court, "this court has no record of Appellant filing a second notice of appeal from the June 4, 2026 bond order."
13. Appellants respectfully submit this Motion to clarify the procedural status of the June 4 Appeal Bond Order and the June 18 filing.

III. APPELLANTS ACTED PROMPTLY AFTER RECEIVING THE WRITTEN ORDER

14. Appellants respectfully emphasize that the June 4 order was not ignored.
15. Appellants' sworn affidavit states that they did not receive the signed order before June 1 and that they learned of the order on June 5. Appellants further state that they immediately attempted to comply after learning of the order.
16. Appellants' June 5 email to AMH documented their attempt to make the required payment and explained that the signed order had not been received before June 1.
17. Appellants also submitted documentation showing that they had funds available to satisfy the bond requirements. Those materials were included with their June 18 submission.
18. Thus, the record demonstrates that Appellants were actively attempting to comply with the circuit court's bond order and were not intentionally refusing to comply.

IV. REQUEST FOR CLARIFICATION

19. Rule 203 requires a party intending to appeal to serve and file a Notice of Appeal and specifies the information that such notice must contain.
20. Appellants acknowledge that the June 18 submission was primarily presented as a submission of the June 4 Appeal Bond Order and related compliance materials rather than as a document expressly titled "Notice of Appeal from the June 4, 2026 Appeal Bond Order."
21. Appellants are proceeding without counsel and respectfully submit that they acted promptly and in good faith in attempting to place the June 4 order before this Court after receiving the signed order.

22. Appellants therefore respectfully request that this Court clarify whether the June 18 filing and accompanying documents were sufficient to place the June 4 Appeal Bond Order before the Court for appellate consideration.
23. If the Court determines that the June 18 filing was not sufficient to constitute a Notice of Appeal from the June 4 order, Appellants respectfully request that the Court identify the appropriate procedural mechanism, if any, by which Appellants may obtain review of that order in light of:

a. the Court's May 1, 2026 remand;

b. the June 4, 2026 bond order;

c. Appellants' stated receipt of the signed order on or about June 5;

d. Appellants' immediate attempt to comply;

e. Appellants' June 18 submission to this Court; and

f. the Court's August 21 order specifically identifying the absence of a second notice of appeal.

V. THE JUNE 4 ORDER IS MATERIAL TO THE PENDING APPEAL

24. The June 4 bond order is not collateral to the dispute. It directly concerns the conditions imposed upon Appellants during the pendency of their appeal.
25. The August 21 order itself recognizes that Appellants filed an appeal concerning the June 4 bond order on June 18 and that Appellants' emergency motion sought relief concerning that order.
26. The June 4 order therefore directly affects Appellants' ability to maintain their appeal and avoid execution of the underlying eviction judgment.
27. Appellants respectfully request that the Court avoid an outcome in which the June 4 bond order remains practically unreviewable solely because Appellants, acting without counsel, did not clearly title their June 18 submission as a separate Notice of Appeal.

VI. RELIEF REQUESTED

WHEREFORE, Appellants respectfully request that this Court:

A. Clarify the procedural status of Appellants' June 18, 2026 filing concerning the June 4, 2026 Appeal Bond Order;

B. Determine whether the June 18 filing and accompanying documents may be treated as sufficient notice of Appellants' intent to seek appellate review of the June 4, 2026 Appeal Bond Order;

C. Alternatively, if the Court determines that the June 18 filing did not constitute a Notice of Appeal, provide such procedural relief or direction as the Court determines is appropriate under the circumstances;

D. Permit Appellants to maintain and preserve their arguments concerning the June 4, 2026 Appeal Bond Order in the pending appeal, to the extent permitted by the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules;

E. Consider the June 4 Appeal Bond Order and the evidence concerning Appellants' timely efforts to comply in determining the proper disposition of the appeal; and

F. Grant such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,

Josetta Singleton
Jayla Singleton
Tinarris Williams

Appellate Case No. 2026-000958

ORDER

On April 17, 2026, Appellants filed a notice of appeal from a circuit court order affirming the magistrate court's order that held Appellants were in breach of their written lease agreement by failing to timely pay rent and issuing a warrant of ejectment. That same day, Appellants also filed a motion to stay. On May 1, 2026, this court granted a temporary stay and remanded to the circuit court for an expedited hearing on the motion to stay and determination of any appeal bond. On June 4, 2026, the circuit court filed an order granting the motion to stay and ordering an appeal bond of $3,977.25 be paid to the landlord on June 1, 2026, and a bond of $2,494.50 plus all utilities be paid on the first of the month starting June 1, 2026.

On June 22, 2026, the circuit court issued an order explaining that in response to its June 4, 2026 order, Appellants filed an emergency motion to determine compliance with the June 4, 2026 bond order, and on June 18, 2026, Appellants filed an appeal of the June 4, 2026 bond order with this court and "[t]herefore, [Appellants'] emergency motion is stayed . . . pending the outcome of the appeal in this matter."

On June 30, 2026, Appellants filed a "Motion for Leave to Supplement the Record and for Other Appropriate Relief," seeking to include in the record on appeal information that would establish Appellants had sufficient funds to comply with the appeal bond requirements.

On July 7, 2026, Appellants filed a motion to supplement the record with a statement of the proceedings, explaining that the bond hearing was not recorded and seeking to include in the record on appeal a statement of the material rulings made by the circuit court. Respondent did not file a return to either motion.

On July 21, 2026, Respondent filed a motion to dismiss the appeal, arguing Appellants' initial brief was not timely filed and its arguments did not address the order on appeal. Respondent also contends that any attempted direct appeal of the circuit court's June 4, 2026 bond order should be dismissed as it was not properly appealed. Appellants filed a return, opposing the motion to dismiss. Respondent did not file a reply.

After careful consideration, Respondent's motion to dismiss is denied without prejudice to Respondent raising the arguments it advanced in its motion to dismiss in its initial brief of respondent. Further, we deny Appellants' June 30, 2026 and July 7, 2026 motions to supplement. Although the June 4, 2026 bond order was provided to this court pursuant to the terms of this court's May 1, 2026 order, this court has no record of Appellant filing a second notice of appeal from the June 4, 2026 bond order.

Dear Clerk:

Please accept this letter and the attached Appeal Bond Order (Form 4) for filing in the above-referenced appeal.

This submission is made in compliance with the Court's directive requiring the Appellant to provide the signed Appeal Bond Order entered by the Circuit Court. Although the appeal bond hearing was conducted on May 26, 2026, the matter remained under advisement, and the written order was not signed and entered until a later date. Upon obtaining a copy of the signed order, I am promptly submitting it to the Court.

For the Court's reference, on June 8, 2026, I also filed a Motion to Determine Compliance and Accept Tender of Appeal Bond into the Court Registry. That motion concerns my efforts to comply with the appeal bond requirements and the circumstances surrounding my attempted tender of the bond funds.

Attached for filing are:

1. Appeal Bond Order (Form 4) signed by the Circuit Court;
2. Proof of Service upon Respondent's counsel;
3. File-stamped Motion to Determine Compliance and Accept Tender of Appeal Bond into the Court Registry, filed June 8, 2026; and
4. Any related supporting documentation.

I respectfully request that the attached Appeal Bond Order be accepted and included in the appellate record. This filing is submitted promptly upon receipt of the signed order and in good-faith compliance with the Court's requirements.

Case No. 2026-CP-08-00297

EMERGENCY MOTION TO DETERMINE COMPLIANCE, ACCEPT TENDER, AND PERMIT DEPOSIT OF APPEAL BOND INTO COURT REGISTRY

Defendant/Appellant, Josetta Singleton, appearing pro se, respectfully moves this Court for an Order determining compliance with the Court's bond order, accepting Appellant's tender of payment as timely under the circumstances, and permitting deposit of all appeal bond payments into the Registry of the Court.

In support of this Motion, Appellant states:

1. On May 26, 2026, a hearing was held before this Court regarding bond and stay issues pending appeal.
2. A written order was subsequently entered on June 4, 2026 requiring an appeal bond payment of $3,977.25 and monthly payments of $2,494.50 plus utilities.
3. Appellant is a pro se litigant and is not an electronic filer.
4. Appellant relies upon service by mail for receipt of court orders and notices.
5. Appellant did not receive a copy of the Court's signed Order before the June 1, 2026 payment deadline contained therein.
6. Upon learning of the existence of the Order on June 5, 2026, Appellant immediately attempted to tender the required payment.
7. The payment was refused by Plaintiff's representative on the basis that payment was allegedly due on June 1, 2026.
8. Appellant explained that the written Order was not signed and entered until June 4, 2026 and that Appellant had only become aware of the Order on June 5, 2026.
9. Appellant has acted in good faith and has made every effort to comply with the Court's directives.

cc:
Q.S.

10. Any alleged noncompliance was not willful and resulted from the lack of timely notice of the written Order and Plaintiff's refusal to accept payment after Appellant became aware of the Order.
11. Appellant remains ready, willing, and able to immediately deposit the required funds.
12. Depositing the funds into the Registry of the Court will protect all parties, preserve the status quo, eliminate disputes regarding payment crediting, and ensure compliance pending appellate review.
13. Equity, due process, and fundamental fairness weigh heavily in favor of allowing Appellant to cure any alleged default where Appellant attempted compliance immediately upon receiving notice.

WHEREFORE, Appellant respectfully requests that this Court:

A. Determine that Appellant acted in good-faith compliance with the Court's Order;

B. Find that Appellant's attempted tender on June 5, 2026 substantially complied with the Court's requirements;

C. Permit Appellant to immediately deposit the appeal bond and future monthly bond payments into the Registry of the Court;

D. Direct that such deposits satisfy all bond obligations pending appeal;

E. Continue all stays presently in effect;

F. Grant such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

Documentation of Attempt to Pay Appeal Bond

2 messages

Josetta Singleton <singletonjosetta02@gmail.com> Fri, Jun 5, 2026 at 4:57 PM
To: Tradd Shepard <tshepard@amh.com>

Dear AMH Legal Team,

I am writing to document that on June 5, 2026, at approximately 4:20 p.m., I went to the leasing office with the intent to make the appeal bond payment.

After learning that an order had been entered, I immediately attempted to make the required payment. However, I have not yet received a copy of the signed order because the Clerk of Court advised that the order is being sent by mail. I was informed that the order was signed by Judge Doby on June 4, 2026.

When I attempted to make the appeal bond payment today, the payment was denied by Tradd and the legal team. As a result, I was unable to complete the payment despite my efforts to do so.

I am sending this email to document that I made a good-faith attempt to comply and tender the appeal bond payment as soon as I became aware that the order had been signed.

Please confirm receipt of this email and advise how I should proceed with making the appeal bond payment once authorization is provided.

Thank you,

Josetta Singleton

Exhibit D

Affidavit of Josetta Singleton

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA

COUNTY OF BERKELEY

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS

AMH DEVELOPMENT, LLC/AH4R MANAGEMENT SC, LLC,

Plaintiff/Respondent,

v.

JOSETTA SINGLETON, JAYLA SINGLETON
and TINARRIS WILLIAMS, Appellant.

FILED
2026 JUN -8 AM 11:27
CLERK OF COURT
BERKELEY COUNTY, SC

Case No. 2026-CP-08-00297

AFFIDAVIT OF JOSETTA SINGLETON IN SUPPORT OF EMERGENCY MOTION TO DETERMINE COMPLIANCE, ACCEPT TENDER, AND PERMIT DEPOSIT OF APPEAL BOND INTO COURT REGISTRY

Personally appeared before me, the undersigned Affiant, Josetta Singleton, who being first duly sworn, states under oath as follows:

1. I am the Appellant in the above-captioned matter and make this Affidavit based upon my personal knowledge.
2. I am representing myself pro se in these proceedings and am not an electronic filer.
3. As a pro se litigant, I rely upon service by mail and communications from the Clerk of Court regarding orders entered in my case.
4. On May 26, 2026, a hearing was held before the Honorable S. Bryan Doby concerning bond and stay issues related to my appeal.
5. Following the hearing, I actively attempted to determine the status of the Court's ruling and whether a written order had been entered.
6. Prior to learning of the Court's Order, I personally went to the Berkeley County Circuit Court and spoke with court personnel, including Sonya and Clerk Alexis, regarding the status of the Court's ruling.
7. During those inquiries, I was informed that the matter remained under advisement and that no final order had yet been issued.
8. Based upon the information provided to me, I reasonably understood that the Court had not yet entered a final order concerning the appeal bond.
9. I did not receive a copy of any signed order by mail before June 1, 2026.
10. I was not aware that an appeal bond order had been entered prior to June 5, 2026.
11. On June 5, 2026, I learned for the first time that the Court had entered an Order concerning the appeal bond.
12. Upon learning of the Order, I immediately acted to comply with its requirements.

13. I went to tender payment in accordance with the Court's Order as soon as I became aware of it.
14. AMH's Regional Manager, Tradd, informed me that the payment could not be accepted because it was allegedly due on June 1, 2026.
15. I explained that the Court's written Order had not been entered until June 4, 2026, and that I had only learned of the Order on June 5, 2026.
16. Despite my immediate and good-faith effort to comply with the Court's Order, the payment was refused.
17. At no time did I intentionally fail to comply with any Court order.
18. I have acted diligently throughout these proceedings and have consistently attempted to comply with all court requirements.
19. Any alleged noncompliance was not the result of willful disregard of the Court's authority but resulted from the lack of timely notice of the signed Order and AMH's refusal to accept payment once I became aware of the Order.
20. I remain ready, willing, and able to immediately deposit the required funds.
21. Depositing the appeal bond into the Registry of the Court would protect all parties, preserve the status quo, prevent further disputes concerning payment, and ensure compliance while appellate proceedings remain pending.
22. I respectfully request that this Court determine that I acted in good faith, find substantial compliance under the circumstances, accept my attempted tender, authorize deposit of the appeal bond into the Registry of the Court, and continue all stays presently in effect.
23. I further request any additional relief the Court deems just, equitable, and proper.

FURTHER AFFIANT SAYETH NOT.

Josetta Singleton

Documentation of Attempt to Pay Appeal Bond

Dear AMH Legal Team,

I am writing to document that on June 5, 2026, at approximately 4:20 p.m., I went to the leasing office with the intent to make the appeal bond payment.

After learning that an order had been entered, I immediately attempted to make the required payment. However, I have not yet received a copy of the signed order because the Clerk of Court advised that the order is being sent by mail. I was informed that the order was signed by Judge Doby on June 4, 2026.

When I attempted to make the appeal bond payment today, the payment was denied by Tradd and the legal team. As a result, I was unable to complete the payment despite my efforts to do so.

I am sending this email to document that I made a good-faith attempt to comply and tender the appeal bond payment as soon as I became aware that the order had been signed.

Please confirm receipt of this email and advise how I should proceed with making the appeal bond payment once authorization is provided.

Thank you,

Josetta Singleton
