AFFIDAVIT CLAIM OF SERVICE
(Electronic Service and Notice of Knowledge)

I, Carolyn Brantley, General Executor and Affiant, being first duly sworn, competent to testify, and having personal knowledge of the matters stated herein, hereby affirm under penalty of perjury pursuant to the laws of the State of South Carolina that the following is true and correct:

I.

Identity of Affiant

1. My name is Carolyn Brantley.
2. I am the Petitioner and General Executor in the above-captioned matter.
3. I make this Affidavit voluntarily, in good faith, and for the purpose of establishing the record of electronic service upon all parties entitled to notice under the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules ("SCACR"), the South Carolina Constitution, and the laws of the State of South Carolina.
4. This Affidavit shall constitute competent evidence that the documents identified herein were transmitted electronically to the recipients identified below.

II.

Authority

5. Article I of the South Carolina Constitution guarantees due process of law and access to justice.
6. Article V of the South Carolina Constitution vests judicial authority within the courts of this State and requires that judicial proceedings be conducted according to law.
7. Rule 205, Rule 208, Rule 209, Rule 221, Rule 240, and other applicable provisions of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules recognize the filing and service of documents within appellate proceedings.
8. South Carolina law favors actual notice where notice has been received, and the purpose of service is to provide fair notice to interested parties.
9. This Affidavit is executed to establish both service and actual notice of the documents identified herein.

VIII.
Declaration

Wherefore, Carolyn Brantley, General Executor and Affiant, hereby certifies and affirms that electronic service of the above-described documents has been completed upon the persons identified herein in accordance with the South Carolina Constitution, applicable South Carolina statutes, the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules, and the governing authority of the Supreme Court of South Carolina.

This Affidavit is intended to serve as official evidence of service and to establish that all recipients have been placed upon lawful Notice and Knowledge of the matters contained within the transmitted filings.

Further Affiant sayeth not.

Respectfully submitted this 29th day of July, 2026.
