Re: Brad Tidik v. Carol Tidik
Appellate Case No. 2026-001555

Hi,

I received your 8/28/26 letter refusing to allow my Motion and Brief for Rehearing of the order denying In Forma Pauperis to be filed as this is an error whereby:

1. The Clerk of this court is standing in stead of the judge and making a judicial determination of the content of my Motion for Rehearing.
1. The Notice of Appeal provided the statutory basis for my Appeal by Right.
2. I filed my Motion and Brief for Rehearing as the court failed to take notice of the statutory basis for my Appeal by Right.
3. My sworn In Forma Pauperis affidavit filed with the Clerk of this court is evidence that denial of In Forma Pauperis does so end this appeal, and the refusal of the Clerk to allow the filing of the Motion and Brief for Rehearing for presentation of the statutory basis for my Appeal by Right to the judge does guarantee the dismissal of the appeal in violation of SCACR Rule 221(c)
4. If the error of the Clerk of this court is not corrected in filing the Motion and Brief for Rehearing then this will force additional motions to be placed before the court to correct this issue.

Please insure that my Motion and Brief for Rehearing are promptly filed with the court.
