Mikell R. Scarborough

SC Court of Appeals case no. 2013-00-2122

Reverse Mortgage Solutions,
Inc.....Respondent

v.

Elvenia Bowens, etal.....Appellants

MOTION TO REINSTATE APPEAL

Wherefore, on December 14, 2013 the Appellants received an order dismissing their appeal for failure to order transcript and providing Intial briefs w/ designation of matter to be included in record on appeal. The appellant moves pursuant to Rule 231 SCACR to reinstate their appeal and offers the following as ground and sufficient grounds to do so.

FIRST GROUND FOR MOTION: Indigency, Pro Se Appellant, Confusion as to court procedures

- The Appellants are indigent and have spoken to two attorneys to perfect this appeal. The attorneys want $5K and $10K respectively. While the Appellants believe that they will be successful on appeal, they cannot afford appellate counsel. As such, they will proceed Pro Se. As Pro se Appellants the Appellant thought that the Appellate court was going to provide them will a copy of the Appellate Court rules/procedures”, but they did not. In any event, the Appellants have made a copy of the appellate court rules and are able to fully comply forthwith.

SECOND GROUND FOR MOTION: Compliance and ability to comply

- The S.C. Court of Appeals has already been informed that the transcripts have been ordered and received (see attached letter to court reporter). Also, the Appellants have prepared and can provide the Initial Brief” and “Designation of matter to be included in the record on appeal” immediately upon reinstatement of their appeal.

Relief,

- Reinstatement of Appellants' appeal (SCCOA case # 2013-00-2122)
- Any other just relief
