Dear Mr. Whitsitt,

Thank you for your email regarding the case of Geiges v. Robinson.

I am writing to inform you that I have not received the Notice of Appeal and Proof of Service mentioned in your message. Despite the note stating it was sent via first-class mail, the package has not arrived through the US Postal Service.

Could you please confirm the mailing address used, or provide a digital copy of these documents for my records?

Dear Mr. Whitsitt,

In addition to my previous message regarding the Geiges v. Robinson case, I have also verified my digital mail notification service, and it does not show any incoming deliveries from your firm.

Could you please resend the documents via certified mail instead?

Thank you,

Jalorie Robinson

Dear Jalorie,

I apologize for the inconvenience. We mailed the documents to the address you provided, which satisfies the notice requirements. I have attached a digital copy here for your records.

Given the rules and this email correspondence, we do not believe certified mail is necessary.

Respectfully,

Michael Whitsitt

RE: NOTICE OF APPEAL; John James Geiges, Jr. and Suely Geiges v. Jalorie J. Robinson Charleston County Court of Common Pleas Case No. 2022-CP-100-5370

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

Please find enclosed for filing in the above-referenced matter the following:

1. Corrected Notice of Appeal in a Civil Case, itself being timely;
2. Second Proof of Service of the Corrected Notice of Appeal;
3. First Notice of Appeal;
4. First Proof of Service;
5. A copy of the Court's September 25, 2025 Order from which the appeal is taken;
6. A copy of the Court's August 5, 2026 Order/Form 4 denying Appellants' post-trial motion;
7. A copy of my correspondence to the court reporter requesting preparation of the transcripts of the September 23, 2025 trial and August 5, 2026 hearing; and
8. A check in the amount of $250.00.

The Corrected Notice of Appeal is submitted to conform the notice previously filed and served in this matter to Rule 203(e), SCACR, and to correct the identification of the underlying final Order from which Appellants appeal. The previously filed Notice of Appeal identified the August 5, 2026 disposition of Appellants' Rule 59(e) motion and reflected Appellants' intent to seek appellate review of the final judgment and rulings incorporated therein. The Corrected Notice accurately identifies the underlying final Order as the Order filed September 25, 2025.

Please file the enclosed documents accordingly. If the Clerk's Office requires any additional documentation or correction in connection with this filing, please contact my office and I will address the matter promptly.

By copy of this letter, I am serving the Respondent with the enclosed filings.

Respectfully,
