

The Supreme Court of South Carolina

Joseph Kelsey, #217218, Petitioner,

v.

South Carolina Department of Probation, Parole, and Pardon Services, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2026-001958

ORDER

Petitioner has filed a motion for an extension of time to serve and file a petition for a writ of certiorari. Because the Court of Appeals sent the remittitur on August 21, 2026, after no timely petition for rehearing was filed, appellate jurisdiction has ended. Accordingly, the motion is stricken and this matter is dismissed. See Rule 242(a), SCACR (providing this Court will only review a final decision of the Court of Appeals); Rule 242(c), SCACR (providing a decision is not final for the purposes of review until a petition for rehearing or reinstatement has been acted on by the Court of Appeals); Stogsdill v. SC Dep't of Health & Human Servs., 415 S.C. 568, 784 S.E.2d 669 (2016) (stating the sending of the remittitur ends appellate jurisdiction over a case); Wise v. S.C. Dep't of Corr., 372 S.C. 173, 174, 642 S.E.2d 551, 551 (2007) (providing that the appellate court no longer has jurisdiction over a case after a remittitur has been properly sent, and the only motion that can be considered is a motion to recall the remittitur).
